PRESS POLICY ISSUE 118 (APRIL 2025) – 2ND READING

Mr. Alcorn asked the Committee if there were any questions. Dr. Wroblewski noted that this item will appear on the June Board agenda, with policy recommendations related to Artificial Intelligence withheld to allow leadership additional time over the summer for thorough review and discussion.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE UPDATE

Dr. Wroblewski informed the Committee that the Superintendent's Council has been reviewing the district's SMART goals and engaging in a deeper exploration of Artificial Intelligence during summer workshops. Administration is evaluating various platforms for teachers and students. He emphasized the importance of embracing Artificial Intelligence, teaching its responsible use, and integrating a curriculum component that focuses on AI-related careers. A formal recommendation will be presented in August.
