IV. Superintendent Report

- A) Updates

Tenure Recognition and Retirement Celebration

Dr. Maria Rianna introduced Mr. Andrew DiNapoli, Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources.

Mr. DiNapoli introduced each principal for staff that was receiving tenure and those principals spoke on behalf of these individuals. Each tenured employee was presented with a green apple paper weight as to the start of their career.

Mr. DiNapoli introduced each retired staff member where he spoke a little about them and they were presented with a red apple paper weight as they close their career in teaching.

Photos of all groups were taken.

The meeting paused at 8:44 pm for a brief reception in the high school art gallery to celebrate these individuals.

V. Student Board Member Report

The student Board Member report was moved prior to the Superintendent Report.

Ms. Isabel Basil shared that high school students had the opportunity to support hands on science learning in the elementary schools with a cow dissection at both Connolly and Landing. She also mentioned that both facility and staff showed their support for mental health awareness by participating in an ice bucket challenge raising $100 for the Active Minds Organization helping to promote mental health resources and awareness as part of Mental Health Awareness Month.

In the Arts, the Select Chorale returned last night from an unforgettable trip to London. While aboard they performed at several incredible venues and visited historic and cultural landmarks. We are proud how they represented our district and grateful they had an awarding and memorable experience.

In athletics, a huge congratulations went out to the Girls Softball Team on becoming Nassau County Champs. A round of applause erupted for the softball team who were in the audience. Ms. Basil stated that the series was filled with great pitching, incredible diving catches and some powerful hits. We are also proud of their teamwork, dedication and success.

Isabel concluded with announcing that Battle of the Classes is this Sunday. Shirts can be purchased through your class officers. The day will include friendly competition and memorable moments as each grade comes together to represent their class bringing the school community even closer.

Dr. Maria Rianna added to Ms. Basil's report.

XII. Board Comments
Trustee Anne Markoulis thanked the community and staff for giving us the opportunity in being represented at the victory games. It was wonderful to see Glen Cove there. Other school districts were jealous of our t-shirts. The smiles on both our students and the staff's faces were overwhelming with excitement. Trustee Markoulis once again thanked everyone involved in putting this together.

Vice-President Angela Raimo thanked the schools and teachers for putting together all the end of year activities as well as wishing all the student’s good luck on their finals.

XIII. Public Participation
