WHAT IS PRE-AP?

Pre-AP features grade-level instruction intended to give all students the opportunity for growth. It offers a focused framework, instructional support, model lessons, and classroom assessments while focusing on skills that students will need to succeed in AP courses, college, and careers.

Shared principles:

- Close Observation and Analysis: Students carefully observe a data set, text, image, or problem--capturing relevant details before attempting to explain, analyze, or evaluate.
- Evidence-Based Writing: Students learn to craft precise sentences before progressing to longer forms of writing—applying these skills as they craft claims, develop arguments, and provide explanations.
- Higher-Order Questioning: Students engage with questions that are elevated beyond simple recall as they make predictions, synthesize, evaluate, and compare--learning that deep questions lead to deeper understanding.
- Academic Conversation: Students become active participants in their own learning through frequent opportunities to compare, critique, debate, and build upon others' ideas--recognizing that all voices, including their own, deserve to be heard.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Pre-AP English 1 is focused on building students' toolkits of literary skills that will enable them to engage with texts on a critical level. Students are expected to participate attentively and read outside of class.

Units:

- Telling Details - We will use a variety of short stories to explore literary techniques and critical thinking.
- Pivotal Words and Phrases - We begin by exploring several types of poems, and then focus on Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare.
- Compelling Evidence - This unit revolves around informational and persuasive reading and writing, and gives the students a chance to dig into methods of persuasion used in informative writing aimed at adults.
- Powerful Openings - This unit, which we address first, is our opportunity to work together to analyse To Kill A Mockingbird by Harper Lee.

Additionally, two Independent Reading projects will be assigned from a curated list of thematically appropriate books. YWLA currently has a limited supply of these independent reading books, so many students will be expected to purchase or borrow these books. A list for each unit will be posted in the Google Classroom, and parents are encouraged to review these choices with their students.

COURSE ACTIVITIES
