

Katzenmeier Weekly Newsletter

August 18-22

Mrs. Katzenmeier, Mrs. Katzenmeier, who do you see? I see kids looking at me! We will continue to practice being respectful, responsible, and ready for success as well as reviewing how to read the color words.

Language Arts Learning Goals:

- *review of the letters and sounds: Mm, Ss, Aa, Nn, Tt
- *blend and segment sounds in words (/c/ /a/ /t/=cat, sap=/s/ /a/ /p/)
- *blend onsets and rimes to say and read words (/b/+ag= bag
- *sequence or order the letters of the alphabet
- *review the concepts of print (letter, word, sentence, capital, spaces, period)
- *differentiate if two words begin with the same sound
- *listen to and read nonfiction text
- *ask and answer questions from a nonfiction text
- *state the main idea and details from a nonfiction text
- *retell a story in order using character, setting, and events from the story
- *read a familiar text to build fluency
- *read words with the -at rime (bat, cat, fat)
- *read color words
- *heart words: I, am, the, and, can, my, just, like, that, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, black, gray, pink, brown
- *review handwriting for Mm

Math Learning Goals:

- *recognize, name, and write numbers 0-10
- *see quantities of 10 in a frame quickly
- *count groups of 0-10 with accuracy
- *count to 50 by ones, tens, and fives
- *state what number is one more than or one less than to 10
- *state what number comes before or after up to 10
- *begin to do beginning addition of story problems

- *practice writing numbers to 10
- *recognize the missing number in a given sequence
- *count forward and backwards to and from 10
- *compare two groups of items using the words more or less
- *compare two numbers as more or less

Our Week:

Monday: Library/Gym/Homework: find things in your home that begin with the letter Mm

Tuesday: Library/Gym/Homework: go on a walk and “spy” things that begin with Ss

Wednesday: Music/Homework: have an adult say two words to you. Do the words start the same? Yes or No?

Thursday: DEER/Music/Homework: Have an adult say two words to you. Thumbs up if they rhyme. Thumbs down if they do not rhyme.

Friday: DEER/Art/Homework: Have a good weekend!

We will have a fire drill Thursday morning!

I have decided that we do need to do a snack, but it will be late in the afternoon. Your child needs to bring a snack each day. One will not be provided. If you would like to send a box of something to keep at school rather than send something in daily, that is fine, too.
