GAME DAY ANNOUNCER
JOB DESCRIPTION

REPORTS TO:
Athletic Director/Assistant Athletic Director(s)

WORK HOURS AND EXPECTATIONS:
The Game Day Announcer position operates on a per-event basis, with individuals scheduled according to the athletic calendar and event needs. Announcers have the flexibility to select the sports they cover based on their personal expertise and familiarity. Sports available include, but are not limited to, football, field hockey, volleyball, soccer, basketball, track and field, lacrosse, softball, and baseball. While not required, prior experience in broadcasting or public address announcing is strongly preferred and will be considered an asset in the selection process.

Primary Responsibilities:
- Deliver live, play-by-play commentary during athletic events.
- Arrive at least 30 minutes before your scheduled shift.
- Clearly and confidently read from prepared scripts.
- Collaborate with athletics staff, scorekeepers, officials, and opposing team coaches.
- Accurately interpret and explain officials' calls to the audience.
- Verify team rosters for accuracy before each event begins.
- Announce starting lineups, including player names and jersey numbers.
- Maintain a professional and impartial tone throughout events.
- Handle multiple tasks, such as tracking fouls, playing assigned music, and reading announcements.

Specific Requirements:
- Strong verbal communication skills (including the ability to pronounce names correctly)
- Confident and clear speaking ability.
- Familiarity with a variety of sports and their basic rules.
- Capable of understanding and conveying officials' decisions.
- Able to perform under pressure in fast-paced environments.
- Physically able to lift up to 30 lbs.
