Substance Use Prevention
(All alphas)

The Role of School Based Mental Health Support

- Provide services that support and enhance the social/emotional well-being of all students
- May include school-wide prevention, programs, student check-ins, peer groups, & staff mentoring.
- The intent is to teach students problem solving and coping skills and encourage engagement in school activities.

Please know direct therapy is not provided in the school setting.

However, outside referrals/communication can be conducted with outside agencies to best support the needs of your student(s).

School Based Health Substance Use Prevention & Intervention

- Provide school-wide substance use prevention programming.
- Voluntary suspension reduction for substance related violations through participation in 1:1 sessions with School Health Professional.
- Support for students who wish to change their substance use habits.

Please know direct therapy is not provided in the school setting.

However, outside referrals/communication can be conducted with outside agencies to best support the needs of your student(s).

Mental Health Resources

Contact your student's counselor or mental health provider for more information

Hazel Health

- Timely access to 6 free virtual, confidential appointments with licensed therapists, 7a-7p M-F at school or in person to help with stress, relationships, mood, grief, trauma & more
- After the free sessions are completed, Hazel makes referrals to mental health services in community to establish long-term support

CCSD Mental Health Resource Fund

- Developed to ensure that any student who is seeking mental health support does not encounter barriers that would prohibit them from getting help
- Conditions: previous negative experience in therapy, needs require specialists due to complex diagnoses & other risk factors; financial/funding barriers

Deans of Students

Lower Dean's Office

- Oliver Thornton: A-L Attendance
- Robb Steven: A-L Conduct

Upper Dean's Office

- Julie Machakos: M-Z Attendance
- Desmond Davis: M-Z Conduct

Attendance

- Get to school
 - Parent/guardian must account for absences within 48 hours. Ideally the day of, as consequences will be issued the following day.
- Get to class on time
 - Excessive tardiness result in detention(s) or Saturday School.
 - Students who are on campus may not be excused from class (cannot miss a class to study or do work for another class).
 - It's recommended that Freshman remain on campus during school hours.

Please use the following numbers to report absences:

- 720-886-6801 (A-L)
- 720-886-6802 (M-Z)

More from The Deans

- Activities/Athletic privileges may be revoked for attendance or discipline concerns.
- Students should have their ID's on their person at all times
- Please refer to the Wolf Call (Grandview's student handbook) or the CCSD website for more information on student discipline
