

SIT Notes – Monday, May 12th, 2025

Attendance: Amanda Henley, Janet Deaton, Sherry Kimrey, Ashley Lynthacum, Samantha Stewart, Lynn Maness, Marcia McBride, Jaimie McDonald, Lashonda Douglas, Esther McDonald, Laura Hannaford

Call to Order	Amanda Henley
Celebrations	Mrs. Kimrey finished her first semester. Fifth grade has finished i-Ready Diagnostics and had some good growth. Mclass testing has started and is going well.
Approval of Last Meeting Minutes	 April SIT Meeting Mrs. Hannaford motioned to approve them, Mrs. Kimrey seconded.
Old business	n/a
Secret Pal	Put snacks in their wellness room by 11:00 and hand deliver your gift to your person sometime during the day.
Transitions	We set a goal for students to go up and visit their other teachers. Grade levels need to reach out to the next grade level for a time they can visit during the week. It would need to be during your planning.
Budget for Next Year	There will be no future forward next year. We currently don't know about NCEd Corp. There will be no IXL next year.
End of Year Events	Field Day and PBIS will be in the same day. K-2 on June 2nd and 3-5 on June 3rd.
Testing-Retesting EOG	3-5 will have the option to EOG retest within the 10 day window before the last day. We will meet to discuss this.
Fundraisers	We would like to continue chocolate sales next year. We will not do Book Blast or yo-yo people. We will not have a live auction, only a silent auction during Fall carnival

Update SIP	One goal was updated, please look for evidence for how we met the goals for the end of the year information that has to be entered.
Open Discussion	A reporter from the Washington Post will be here sometime in the near future to follow Mrs. Deaton around and interviewing about the loss of the TSL grant. He did some research and determined that our district was the hardest hit and if you would like to speak to him on or off the record, you are welcome to do so. Dragon Deputies/ Hall Monitors are going good. It seems to be helping. Our theme for next school year will be "How to Train your Dragon"!
Adjournment	Amanda adjourned our meeting.