Dear Friends,

Thank you. Your generosity turned possibility into formative moments of learning, connection, and growth.

You helped students from a diverse range of backgrounds join Sidwell Friends and participate fully in the life of the School. You supported professional development for our faculty that brought fresh energy to the classroom. And you helped create student experiences that inspired curiosity, compassion, and courage in the community.

Your support of The Sidwell Friends Fund during the 2024-2025 school year played a vital role. With tuition contributing only 76 percent of our operating revenue, your generosity enriched the programs and experiences that bring our mission to life.

At Sidwell Friends, we empower students to let their lives speak. Through your giving, you let yours speak clearly—for equity, for intellectual engagement, for growth rooted in values, and for the power of community.

We are deeply grateful.

In friendship,
