Parents with more than one child should see the example scenarios provided below:

Scenario A: One Parent with Kindergartener + 2nd Grader

5:00–5:25 K Supply Drop

5:25–6:00 K Presentation (Block 1)

5:55–6:30 2nd Presentation

6:25–7:00 K Presentation (Block 2, only if Block 1 was missed)

6:55–7:30 2nd Presentation (2nd option, if earlier one was missed)

Best Path: Do K first (supply + Block 1 presentation), then head directly to the 2nd Grade presentation.

Scenario B: One Parent with Kindergartener + 4th Grader

Time

- 5:00–5:25 K Supply Drop
- 5:25–6:00 K Presentation (Block 1)
- 5:55–6:30 4th Presentation
- 6:25–7:00 K Presentation (Block 2, only if Block 1 was missed)
- 6:55–7:30 4th Presentation (2nd option, if earlier one was missed)

Best Path: Start with Kindergarten, then transition to 4th Grade.

Scenario C: One Parent with Kindergartener + 2nd Grader + 4th Grader

Time

- 5:00–5:25 K Supply Drop
- 5:25–6:00 K Presentation (Block 1)
- 5:55–6:30 2nd Presentation
- 6:55–7:30 4th Presentation
- 6:25–7:00 K Presentation (Block 2, backup option if Block 1 was missed)

Best Path: Do Kindergarten first, move to 2nd Grade, and finish with 4th Grade or divide and conquer with other loving adults when possible.
