

Parental Objection to Release of Student Information: to Military Recruiters, College/University Recruiters, or Prospective Employers

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Under the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), as amended by the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), public high schools must give the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of students to military recruiters, college/university recruiters, and prospective employers if the recruiters request the information (ESSA, Title VIII, §8528). However, students or their parents have the right to instruct the school in writing that this information is not to be released.

If you do not consent to the release of this information to 1) military recruiters, 2) colleges/university recruiters, and/or 3) prospective employers, please check the appropriate box or boxes below. To ensure that your wishes are respected, return this form to the Vice Principal's Office by 9/30/25. Signed forms returned after that date will be effective after the date of receipt:

- DO NOT release student contact information to Military Recruiters.
- DO NOT release student contact information to College/University Recruiters.
- DO NOT release student contact information to prospective employers.
