

Web Accessibility Statement

Ashe County Schools is committed to ensuring accessibility of its website for students, parents, and members of the community, including those with disabilities. School and district websites will be maintained in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Ashe County Schools shall ensure that all new, updated, and existing webpages are accessible to all people, including those with disabilities. The district shall ensure that all website content and functionality conforms to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0 with AA standards, or updated equivalents of these guidelines.

If you have trouble accessing any of our webpages or documents, please contact us as we are continually striving to improve the experience for all of our visitors and users. Please help us respond to you in the most beneficial way by indicating the nature of your accessibility problem, the preferred format(s) in which you want to receive the material, and your contact information.

Ashe County Schools strives to adhere to the accepted guidelines and standards for accessibility and usability as comprehensively as possible on this website and on our school websites. We are continually seeking solutions that will bring all areas of our sites up to the same level of overall web accessibility. In the meantime, should you experience any difficulty in accessing any school or district website within Ashe County Schools, please don't hesitate to contact us.
