Dr. Jacqueline Inabinette
Assistant Principal, Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School

Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School Welcomes Dr. Jacqueline Inabinette as Assistant Principal

Orangeburg, S.C. – Orangeburg County School District is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Jacqueline Inabinette as the new Assistant Principal at Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School. Dr. Inabinette brings a distinguished 35-year career in education, including extensive experience in leadership roles focused on curriculum development, student support services, and instructional excellence.

Dr. Inabinette previously served as Assistant Superintendent and Director of Safety and Special Projects for Clarendon County School District, where she led initiatives that significantly improved student outcomes, school safety, and academic achievement. Her wealth of experience also includes roles as Executive Director of Federal Programs and Accountability and Principal within Orangeburg Consolidated School District 5.

"I am thrilled to join Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School and work alongside an exceptional leader like Dr. Goldsmith," Dr. Inabinette stated. "I am deeply committed to fostering a safe, inclusive environment where students excel academically and personally. Together, we will continue to build on the school's strong foundation of excellence."

Dr. Patricia Goldsmith, principal of Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School, shared her enthusiasm for Dr. Inabinette's appointment. "Dr. Inabinette's extensive experience and proven leadership in both instructional and administrative roles will undoubtedly contribute to our mission of excellence at OW High School. I look forward to partnering with her, and our entire team as we strive to provide outstanding educational experiences for our students."

Dr. Shawn D. Foster, superintendent of Orangeburg County School District, added, "We are delighted to welcome Dr. Inabinette back to Orangeburg. Her impressive track record in instructional leadership, student support, and community collaboration aligns perfectly with our vision of elevating student achievement and nurturing a positive school culture. We are confident in her ability to make a significant impact at OW High School."

Dr. Inabinette holds a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from South Carolina State University and is recognized for her strategic vision, commitment to student success, and collaborative leadership style.

Orangeburg County School District warmly welcomes Dr. Jacqueline Inabinette and looks forward to her contributions to Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School and the greater educational community.
