Dear Salt Brook Community,

I hope this message finds you and your loved ones enjoying a restful and joyful summer. My name is Natasha Allen, and I am honored to introduce myself as the new principal of Salt Brook School! Salt Brook is an extremely special place that values every student and promotes academic excellence and the overall social-emotional well-being of all of our students. It is a true privilege to join a school community that is known for its commitment to academic excellence, student-centered learning, and strong family partnerships.

I am entering this position with 21 years of experience in education—as a teacher, instructional leader, and most recently as an assistant principal at Allen W. Roberts. I have dedicated my career to creating safe, supportive, and engaging learning environments where all students can thrive. Many of you may not know that my journey at Salt Brook began 11 years ago when I joined the school as a fourth-grade teacher. During that time, I had the privilege of building meaningful relationships with our incredible staff, students, and families, connections that continue to inspire me today. Each morning, my students and I would begin our day by reciting one of my favorite quotes by Walt Disney: “All our dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them.” This quote has always reminded me—and hopefully reminded my students—that with determination and resilience, anything is possible. I truly believe that when we face challenges with courage and a positive mindset, we open the door to achieving great things.

Outside of school, I am proud to share that I have a wonderful family and a twelve-year-old son who brings so much joy and perspective to my life. As both an educator and a parent, I understand how important it is to build strong home-school partnerships and open lines of communication. I look forward to building those relationships with all of you and working together to support the academic and social-emotional growth of our students. I believe strongly in the power of connection, collaboration, and high expectations, and I am committed to ensuring that each child feels seen and valued.

Thank you for the warm welcome I’ve already received from many families. Here is a short video to share with your child(ren) so they can meet me too! I am truly excited for the year ahead and can’t wait to begin this journey together!

Sincerely,
