Dear Parents and Students,

Tenafly Public Schools is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and equitable learning environment for all students and staff.

The purpose of Title IX is to ensure that no student or employee of federally funded educational programs is discriminated against based on gender, age, race, creed, disability, religion, ancestry, national origin, affectional or sexual orientation, English proficiency, or social or economic status.

Under Title IX regulations, all students and staff must be provided equal opportunities in:

- Access to and treatment in curricular and extracurricular programs
- Policies and regulations governing student benefits, services, conduct, and dress
- Admission to educational institutions
- Access to employment in educational agencies
- Terms, conditions, and benefits of employment

Complaints should be addressed to:
