What is a School-Parent Compact?

The School –Parent compact is jointly-developed between the school and parents/caregivers to describe how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and identify the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the challenging state academic standards.

Parents/caregivers are invited to review this brochure annually and provide input, and they, along with their students and educators, are encouraged to fully participate in the school's educational program and the responsibilities as described herein.

Teachers, Parents, and Students—Together for Success

Teacher/School Responsibilities

Victory's teachers provide a school experience that is conducive to learning and allows them to serve as strong role models. They are committed to being aware of student needs, communicating with you about your child's progress frequently, teaching basic and above grade-level concepts and skills to help students not just meet, but exceed, state achievement standards, motivating and encouraging students to practice academics at home, holding parent/teacher conferences twice annually, delivering the Harbor School Method's academics with fidelity, and providing materials for home to enhance literacy and other academic subjects.

Victory's administration is equally invested in every student's education and is committed to ensuring the school carries out its roles and responsibilities as a Harbor Method School so that the school is safe and permits positive communication between students, parents and teachers; encourages opportunities for learning at home and provides equal and fair opportunities to access staff and volunteer opportunities.

Student Responsibilities

Students play an important role in their education by taking responsibility for their behavior, giving their work and school papers to their parents/caregivers, paying attention, asking for help, completing class work on time and to the best of their ability, and through teachers and parent/caregiver's encouragement believe that they can and will learn.

Family Responsibilities

- Encouraging& helping your child establish a good rest and healthy meals routine.
- Establishing with your child an at-home place and time to study and a daily reading time.
- Accessing learning resources provided by your child's teacher and on the school's website to provide additional learning opportunities at home.
- Taking part in the parent and family engagement activities offered through the school, such as volunteering, reviewing school policies & plans, attending school events, completing annual surveys, etc.
- Reviewing the school's academic outcomes at https://idahoschools.org.

If parents do not have the ability to access at home the online materials mentioned, they may request to use the school's computers during the school day when student learning is not affected.
