Step 2 – Welcome

On the welcome page, you should see our Saint Ignatius logo and a welcome message (see below).

WELCOME ● ● ●

* indicates required fields

Welcome and thank you for your interest in Saint Ignatius High School. Saint Ignatius High School, a Catholic all-boys high school, located in beautiful Ohio City, Ohio. Our education forms students to be open to growth, intellectually competent, religious, loving, and committed to social justice. Graduates emerge as Men for Others.

Through this inquiry form, all eighth grade families will gain access to our new admissions portal and will have the ability to:

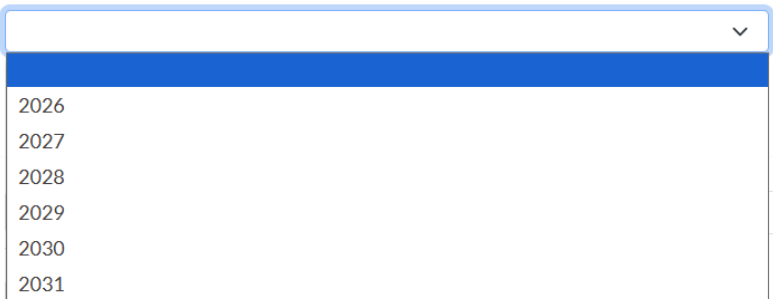

- Check your son's progress from inquiry to application and decision
- Register for admissions events, including Open House and Wildcat for a Day shadowing
- Register for the 8th Grade Admissions Test (High School Placement Test)
- Complete our Application Form
- Communicate with the Admissions Team

From here, you'll scroll to the section "How can we help you today?" From the choices listed, you will be able to schedule your High School Placement Test (HSPT), pick a day for Wildcat for a Day shadowing, schedule your time for our Open House, or simply inquire about us.

Step 3 – About the Student

This section is about your son. You will need to complete a separate Inquiry Form for each student.

When you get to the "anticipated graduation year from high school" question, current 8th-grade students will graduate in 2030.

Step 4 – About the Parent/Guardian

This section is all about the Parent/Guardian. Don't worry, you will be able to add an additional Parent/Guardian in the Student Profile form. This Parent/Guardian should be the main contact for the entire admissions process.

Step 5 – Student's Area of Interest

This section is all about what your son is interested in. If you don't see an interest listed, please use the "Other Interests" box.
