Parkland Girls Soccer put on a dominant display in their 6-0 win over Freedom in the District XI Quarterfinals. The Trojans were in control from start to finish, with a relentless offensive attack and a disciplined defensive effort that secured another clean sheet. This impressive victory sets the stage for today's highly anticipated District XI Semi-Final against a strong Emmaus team, a familiar rival known for their physical play and tactical discipline.

With a spot in DXI Final as well as the PIAA 4A State Tournament on the line, the stakes couldn't be higher. Parkland will need to bring their sharpest game, capitalizing on scoring opportunities and maintaining their defensive strength to keep Emmaus at bay. The Trojans are determined to continue their postseason run and claim their place in the state tournament. It's sure to be an intense and thrilling match—
Let's go, Trojans!
