Dear Incoming and Returning Students and Families,

It is with great excitement that we are inching closer to the start of an amazing school year. I want to congratulate and welcome our incoming families on becoming members of the Cab Calloway School of the Arts legacy, which has been built upon a proud tradition of academic excellence and artistic distinction.

Our continued success is due to the collective dedication of our students, staff, parents, alumni, and community partners. We are thrilled for you to join this tradition and look forward to supporting you as you begin your journey here.

As a reminder, we will be hosting our New Student Orientation Day tomorrow, starting promptly at 9:00 AM-1:00 PM. This will be a wonderful opportunity to meet new classmates, connect with our dedicated staff, and gain a glimpse into the vibrant middle and high school "Cab Experience." If you are unable to attend, here is the Parent Session Presentation so that you can review.

For our incoming and returning families, we ask that you review the following information, which will provide important details about our updated procedures, routines, policies, and resources:

Parent and Student Support Contact List
25-26 SY Bell Schedule
Bell Schedule Rotation
Cell Phone Policy
Arrival and Dismissal Procedures
Student and Family Handbook
Cab 25-26 SY Google Calendar
Cab Bullying Prevention Draft Plan

Please note, we are updating our district-issued school website https://cab.redclayschools.com/, but repurposing the existing website for internal usage with hopes of getting your feedback on how we can design the website user-friendly for our community members.

If you are an incoming family, we look forward to seeing you tomorrow and all of our community on August 21, 2025, at CABFest at 5:30 PM. I hope this information is helpful to begin this exciting new chapter together here at Cab Calloway School of the Arts, "a place where the energy of the arts and academics unite."

Sincerely,

Dean Anthony Gray-Bolden
