

Donation Guidelines

We are so grateful for your generosity in donating to educators! To ensure a smooth donation process, we kindly ask that you review the following donation guidelines.

Accepted Donations:

We accept donations of new items listed below:

- Arts & Crafts Supplies (colored pencils, crayons, glue, highlighters, paint, stickers, etc.)
- Paper (copy paper, colored paper, construction paper, manila paper, etc.)
- School Supplies (binders, composition notebooks, spiral notebooks, etc.)
- Office Supplies (pens, pencils, markers, erasers, dry erasers, Expo markers etc.)
- Hygiene items (sanitizing wipes, Kleenex, toothpaste, feminine products, hand sanitizer, etc.)

In addition to brand new, we also accept the following items like new or in good condition:

- Classroom Items (board games, puzzles, treasure kit prizes)
- Books (Pre-K through high school levels)
- Backpacks
- Water Bottles (Please bring pre-washed)

You can also make donations through our store amazon wish list here and the library wish list here. You can select items based on your budget and they will be sent directly to us!

Items We Cannot Accept:

To maintain the quality of the donations, we are unable to accept the following:

- Textbooks or professional development books
- Miscellaneous items (i.e. junk drawer contents)
- Items that are heavily used or in poor condition

Please reach out to Nefresourcestore@nisdtx.org if you need help deciding if you can donate specific items or if you have any questions at all!

If you have items that you'd still like to donate but can't with us, please check out the Welman Project here to still give back to educators!

How do I donate?

Because we are a small team working in a small space, donations are accepted by appointment only. Please email Nefresourcestore@nisdtx.org or call us at 817-215-0084 to set up an appointment. Please include a description of what items will be donated.
