

Cape Henlopen School District

Board Policy #100, Programs, Section 111: Technology Protection Measure and Internet Safety Policy

Technology is essential to support teaching and learning in the Cape Henlopen School District. Users of the district's computers, mobile devices (including personal cell phones) and networks are responsible for their actions. The use of technology in the District must be consistent with the academic goals of the school and the District. Access to the technology is provided for students who agree to act in a considerate manner and follow the Cape Henlopen School District Code of Conduct, the state of Delaware Acceptable Use Policy, and school rules.

System administrators and school staff may monitor or review Internet activity, files and communications to maintain system integrity and to ensure responsible system use. Violations may result in the loss of access as well as other disciplinary or legal action. NOTE: The district employs blocking and filtering measures to restrict access to material harmful to minors.

ACCEPTABLE USES OF TECHNOLOGY FOR STUDENTS:

- Using technology in the District in a manner consistent with the academic goals of the school and district
- Accessing systems using only authorized usernames/passwords
- Cellphones/electronic devices, including headphones, must be powered down and stored in an assigned location during the school day (refer to the Code of Conduct)

UNACCEPTABLE USES OF TECHNOLOGY FOR STUDENTS may include, but are not limited to the following, which may result in disciplinary or legal action:

- Harassing, insulting, or attacking others
- Intentionally damaging computers, software, systems, or networks
- Revealing personal information or parents' personal information such as addresses, telephone numbers, credit card numbers, etc.
- Sending or displaying messages or pictures that are offensive
- Using obscene or profane language
- Violating copyright laws
- Using the network for illegal or commercial purposes, including "hacking" and other unauthorized access
- Using or bypassing another person's username and password
- Trespassing in another's folder, work, or files

As a parent or legal guardian of the student signing below, I grant permission for my child to access District technology services including e-mail and the Internet. I understand that individuals and families may be held liable for violations. I understand that some material on the Internet may be objectionable, but I accept responsibility for the guidance of Internet use-setting and conveying standards for my child to follow when selecting, sharing, or exploring information. This agreement applies until the end of the current school year.
