Winton Woods City Schools
QUALITY PROFILE

Dear Winton Woods Families and Community,

With great pride, we share the Winton Woods City Schools Quality Profile, a snapshot of our district's heart and purpose. This document complements our state report card and highlights the rich experiences our students enjoy through academics, arts, athletics, and programs that support their growth and well-being.

Our schools are more than classrooms. They are vibrant communities where students are nurtured, challenged, and inspired. This is possible because of our staff's dedication, our families' involvement, and the steadfast support of our board and community.

Reflecting on a successful year, we celebrate the achievements and partnerships that define our Warrior community. We remain committed to building on this foundation and ensuring every student reaches their highest potential.

Thank you for your ongoing support and trust. We invite you to explore the Quality Profile and see the story of our schools come to life.

With Warrior Pride,

Steve K. Denny

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING (PBL)

Powered by the New Tech Network

PBL is an innovative approach that equips students with the skills they need for success in the 21st century. Each unit begins with a real-world challenge that students work to solve through collaboration, research, and creativity. It's learning with purpose and how we help our students thrive.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY EARLY COLLEGE ACADEMY PROGRAM

This year, 31 Winton Woods High School juniors and seniors completed college coursework at Miami University's competitive Early College Academy program. These students take 15-16 credit hours each semester at the Hamilton campus, enabling them to graduate with a high school diploma and an Associate Degree in two years at no cost to the student or family. This year, 14 Winton Woods graduates completed this program, earning their Associate Degree from Miami University.

GROWING ENROLLMENT

Winton Woods City Schools' increased enrollment is credited to the incredible support from across our district. We are proud to be at the forefront of educational transformation as one of a handful of New Tech Network districts that provide Project-Based Learning (PBL) for every student.

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Winton Woods City School District places a high priority on fiscal responsibility and financial stewardship. The funds from the last operating levy, approved in 2009, have been maximized to the present day without any additional new local operational levies being approved.
