

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A WELLNESS CHAMPION?

Communicator
Encourager
Relationship Builder
Advocate

Who are my Wellness Champions?

Natasha Jackson, Carmen Madigan, and Jessica Shere

What is their role?

Communicator - The go to person about the FSD145 Wellness Program. Answering questions such as, "Where do I turn in my challenge documents?" or, "Where do I find wellness exam forms?"

Encourager - There to cheer me on!

Relationship Builder - Encouraging us as a building or department to share out hobbies and passions, and connect with others. Share a bike ride, craft, mindfulness meditation, walking group, fruit and veggie day, etc.

Advocate - Provide staff meeting reminders and/or notice posted in staff areas.

What they are not?

Expected to organize your group activity.

Collect paperwork, record and monitor wellness points. These should always be sent to health@fsd145.org or submitted through the Google form.

Wellness Champion Commitment:

- ◇ Be a wellness role model by committing to the wellness program initiatives, participating in the program, and making consistent effort to make good choices.
- ◇ Encourage others through the process.
- ◇ Help others to focus on the reason for wellness, not just meeting the goal.
- ◇ Bring people together to form a cohesive team and build positive relationships.
- ◇ Commit to the program for the school year.
- ◇ Earn 250 points for entire school year commitment.

The Wellness Champion does not:

- ◇ Does not need to be an expert in wellness or “have it all together”. We are humans helping other humans!
- ◇ Does not have to be THE person to coordinate or conduct group activities.
- ◇ Does not collect “paperwork” from staff.
