

Goldendale School District

Graduate profile

Cultivates competence & knowledge

Graduates will think critically, apply their learning, and take ownership of their learning and future.

Sustains Well-Being

Graduates will have a strong sense of self and understand how their actions, interactions and learning make a difference.

Demonstrates resilience & adaptability

Graduates will be able to persist and adapt to meet diverse challenges, using self-motivation, confidence, and positivity to stay driven and advocate for themselves.

Contributive learner

Graduates will contribute positively to their communities by staying involved and developing connections.