FARGO PUBLIC SCHOOLS ANNOUNCES ADMINISTRATION ASSIGNMENT

Fargo Public Schools announces the assignment of Jaclyn Shultis as assistant principal and activities coordinator at Ben Franklin Middle School. She will assume the position for the 2025-26 school year from Matthew Quintus who is now assistant principal at Davies High School.

Jaclyn Shultis has been assistant principal at Horace Mann Roosevelt Elementary School since 2020. She has worked in multiple roles at Fargo Public Schools since beginning her career in education in 2008. She was a physical education teacher from 2008-15, serving at Lincoln Elementary School, Lewis & Clark Elementary School, and South High School. She was then an elementary counselor at Horace Mann Roosevelt from 2015-2020.

Shultis was a volleyball coach for North High School from 2009-2012, coaching the sophomore team for the 2009 and 2010 seasons and the junior varsity team for the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

Shultis holds an Associate of Arts in Pre-Education from North Dakota State College of Science, a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education K–12 from North Dakota State University, and a Master of Education in School Counseling K–12 from NDSU. She holds an elementary principal credential from NDSU.
