Math and Science Academic Language Development

PRACTICAL STRATEGIES FOR INTEGRATED ELD IN EVERY CLASSROOM

About

Join nationally recognized educator and author Dr. Jeffrey Zwiens for a powerful learning series, designed exclusively for teaching teams and coaches. Grounded in his influential book, The Communication Effect, participants will learn practical strategies, building upon current teaching practices, to increase development of academic language in math and science contexts by leveraging authentic academic conversations and language-rich practices in reading, writing, speaking, and listening.
