Bond Oversight Committee discussion

1. As committee members, what do you need from district staff?
2. What would you like to see moving forward?
3. What does this make you think about this committee's work going forward?

Key Takeaways from Today

- Committee members see firsthand where the bond dollars go and what experiences and resources they create for Tulsa students
- We are committed to learning from this process and improving
- Tulsa Public Schools is doubling down on transparency
- We are seeking external expertise to add even more oversight
- The bond continues to be integral to the success of our district and the experience of our students
- Bond passage = critical resources for students that creates access to opportunities
