

THE PENNINGTON SCHOOL

For Immediate Release: September 2, 2025

Contact: Jennifer Taverney, jennifer.taverney@pennington.org, 609-559-5285

PENNINGTON, NJ, September 2, 2025—The Pennington School Welcomes New Faculty and Staff for the 2025-26 School Year

PENNINGTON, NJ—This fall, The Pennington School welcomed five new faculty members: Abaigeal Baldrick, Gabrielle Chwae, Michelle Hart '07, Tyler Kline, and Jane Wilson. Additionally, two individuals have joined the staff since last school year: Daniel Baverstock and Dominic Brunell.

Abaigeal Baldrick joins Pennington as a teaching fellow in the Cervone Center for Learning. She graduated from Marist College in Poughkeepsie, NY, with a BA in English. Currently, Baldrick, who was a paraprofessional at Old Bridge High School last year, is finishing up her master's in teaching from Kansas State University.

New Chief Financial and Operations Officer Daniel Baverstock has spent 26 years working in the investment management industry across various countries, including England, Singapore, and the US. He received his bachelor's degree in financial services from Bournemouth University in England. He most recently served as CFO of infrastructure for Deutsche Bank's Investment Company.

Dominic Brunell is the newest addition to the School's Operations department, where he will assume the role of electrician. Brunell has been in the electrical trade for over forty years and comes to Pennington from Educational Testing Service, also known as ETS, where he worked for over three decades.

Gabrielle Chwae will be joining the math department. Chwae earned her BA from Vassar College and most recently taught mathematics and history in Virginia before relocating to New Jersey.

Pennington alumnae Michelle Hart '07 brings a wealth of experience to her new role as teacher of English. She received her undergraduate degree from Hofstra University and her graduate degree from Rutgers University. Previously, she worked as a full-time editor at O, The Oprah Magazine, and is a professional writer. Hart has published a novel along with articles for The New York Times, The Boston Globe, and The New Yorker.

Tyler Kline will also serve as a new teacher of English within the Upper School. Kline brings with him over seven years of teaching experience in the Central Bucks School District and at local colleges and universities. He earned his BA in secondary English education from the University of Delaware and his MFA in creative writing from New York University.

Jane Wilson joins the Middle School as the new sixth-grade English and history teacher. Previously, she taught middle school English at Chapin for twenty years. She earned her BFA in acting from Boston University and an MA in educational theatre and secondary English from NYU. Additionally, Wilson studied for two years at the University of Maryland in Munich, Germany.

The Pennington School is an independent coeducational school for students in grades 6 through 12, in both day and boarding programs. The curriculum is college preparatory, with an emphasis on individual excellence, fostering the development of the whole student through academics, athletics, community service, and the creative and performing arts.

–30–

Photo Caption: 2025-26 faculty and staff of The Pennington School