

Restorative Mix-Tape

SEPTEMBER

Let's Keep the Rhythm Going!

As we move into September, our Restorative Mix-Tape continues to support educators in cultivating safe and brave spaces where all students feel a deep sense of worth and belonging. This month's curated resources build on the foundation of connection laid in August, offering tools to deepen relationships, foster inclusivity, and sustain a restorative classroom culture. Because when students feel seen, heard, and valued, learning thrives. Let's keep building the community together, connection is still the curriculum!
