Play On! Characters and Plot summary

Play On! is a play-within-a-play, and the inside play (Murder Most Foul) is…really bad. There you go.

The crew of Murder Most Foul:

Aggie Manville – a stage manager and prompter –
Geraldine/Gerry Dunbar – a director – (she (or he) is me. Like,,,I have literally played Gerry and was not acting.
Louise/Louie Perry – an overworked sound, light, and sound technician
Phyllis/Phil Montague – a somewhat eccentric novice playwright –

The cast of Murder Most Foul

(so these actors will be playing themselves, and a character in Murder Most Foul. You will need an English accent - not necessarily great, and they don't all have to sound the same).
Henry Benish (Lord Dudley) – Leading man – mid 50's
Polly Benish (Lady Margaret) – A Community Theater "diva"
Marla "Smitty" Smith (Doris the maid) – pretty but awkward – quite young
Saul Watson (Dr. Rex Forbes – the villain) –
Billy Carewe (Stephen Sellers) – future leading man –
Violet Imbry (Diana Lassiter- an Ingénue) – she isn't super bright.