Message from the Head of School

To The Class of 2025...

"People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

-Maya Angelou

Your collective leadership and commitment to this school, to our community, and to one another, has made each and every teacher, staff member, and fellow student smile and feel better no matter what the weather, challenges, or hurdles thrust in front of us. Instinctively, MCI thrives because none of us is alone and all fully appreciate that we are stronger together, and part of a fabric greater than mere bricks and mortar. We are a perpetual family, and, as relatives are wont to do, wish you every success and happiness as you now move forward in life, firm in the conviction that today is the foundation of tomorrow.

Good luck, very well done, and make us proud.

Mr. Pearson

Neath our honored garnet,
MCI, we pledge to thee...

...Mater, Alma Mater,
faith and loyalty!

Go
Huskies!!

We are the Class of '25

As we prepare to leave high school and start our new journeys, the Class of 2028 would like to share with you some words of advice: Embrace every moment. Take it all in, the good and the bad. Do everything. Get involved with as much as possible. Support your friends, your peers—they make all the difference. Don't be afraid to make mistakes. Remember that you are not alone; your teachers, peers, and mentors are here to help. Be kind to yourself. Celebrate your successes—big or small—you can accomplish anything you put your mind to. Each new experience is a chance to learn, to grow, and become the best version of you. High school flies by, even when it feels like it will last forever, so make the most of it. Your time will come before you know it.

Keep your head up. You've got this.

As we move on to our next chapter, make sure to never forget how you got here. Be grateful for the people that helped you along the way to be in the position you are in now.

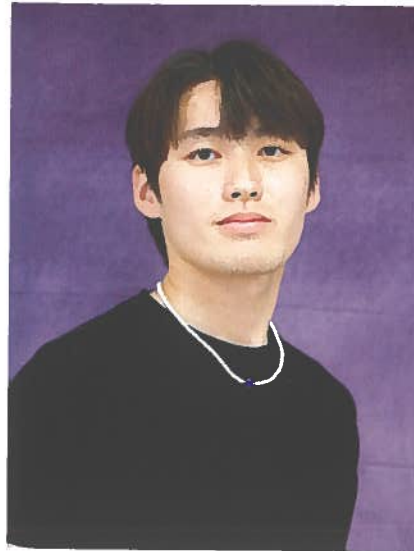

Caleb Kennedy
Class President

The Manson Essay is a major paper written by all MCI students. The objectives of the Manson Essay are to write a thesis paper using different types of sources, to access and use information in support of that paper, to provide a logical defense of a point of view in both written and oral formats, to demonstrate competency in formal documentation of primary and secondary sources, to apply word processing skills, and to develop organization, independent learning, and time management skills.

Libs,
We are so Proud!!! You have shown determination and hard work pays off. We have enjoyed watching you grow into the the person you are today. You are going to do great things with your life, We will be right by your side.
.We Love you So much
Love Dad, Mom and Luke

Dear Libby,
It's Crazy you are going to be in college, I am so proud of you. You have worked so hard the last 4 years challenging your self to be better every day. I'm glad to be apart of your High school journey and the memories we created together. Look forward to making many more. You will always find a way to succeed no matter how hard it gets because i believe in you.
Congratulations
Love Porter

It takes a village to create a yearbook, and the yearbook staff would like to thank everyone who generously shared their pictures this year. Special thanks go to Mr. David Pearson, Mr. Brayden Rollins, Mr. Cory Verrill, and Minchae Kim

This year's Trumpet is dedicated to Mrs. Kristen Clanton. Her unwavering dedication, infectious positivity, and genuine care for her students have made an indelible mark on our school community.

What sets Mrs. Clanton apart is her ability to brighten even the darkest days with her radiant smile and positive attitude. She has a unique gift for making each student feel seen and valued, taking the time to check in and have meaningful conversations. Her classroom is a haven of support, where students know they can always find a listening ear and a helping hand. But Mrs. Clanton's impact extends far beyond the classroom.

As a cheer coach, she has inspired athletes to push their boundaries and believe in themselves. Her encouragement and support have been instrumental in shaping not just better students and athletes, but better individuals. Mrs. Clanton's presence at games and her genuine interest in her students' lives outside of school demonstrate her deep commitment to their success and well-being.

Mrs. Clanton's impact on the students of MCI is profound and lasting. She has been a constant source of support, guiding them through challenges and celebrating successes. Her patience, understanding, and unwavering belief in their potential inspires students to see the world - and themselves - in a new light.

This yearbook is dedicated to you, Mrs. Clanton, a true inspiration and the embodiment of what it means to be an exceptional teacher and mentor.
