

2025 Parent Survey Summary

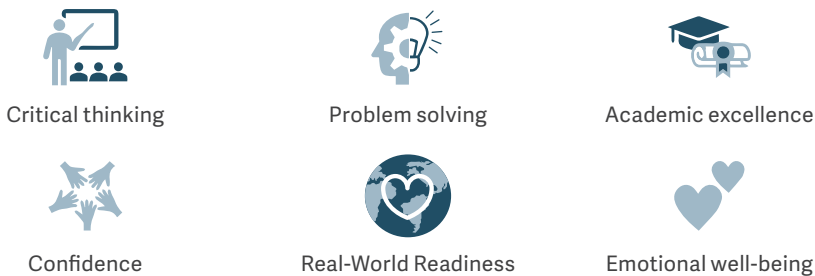

Thank you for sharing your perspective.

Earlier this year, we asked parents and guardians to share their thoughts about what matters most in their child's education. Your feedback was insightful, heartfelt, and deeply appreciated. From your hopes and expectations to the experiences you value most, your input helped guide an important process: the development of our district's new foundational statements.

WHAT ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT CONCEPTS WHEN THINKING ABOUT YOUR CHILD'S SCHOOL EXPERIENCE?

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING ARE IMPORTANT TO YOU WHEN THINKING ABOUT YOUR CHILD'S SCHOOL EXPERIENCE?

OTHER THINGS WE HEARD LOUD AND CLEAR:

- Safety and belonging come first. You want schools where students feel emotionally and physically safe, included, and valued.
- Academic excellence matters. Families expect BHS to deliver high-quality, rigorous learning that prepares students for college and careers.
- Real-world skills are essential. You value life skills like financial literacy and emotional intelligence, overall wanting learning that prepares students for life beyond school.
- Relationships make a difference. Teachers and staff play a key role in your child's success, and strong connections across the school community matter.
- Mental health and balance are a priority. Many of you voiced concerns about stress, screen time, and the need for more focus on emotional well-being.
- Proud of the past, ready for what's next. There's strong support for BHS traditions and programs, along with a desire for continued growth and consistency.

Real Results

Your feedback played a vital role in shaping the direction of our district. The themes you shared about belonging, academic excellence, well-being, and real-world readiness directly influenced the development of our new foundational statements. These statements reflect what we heard and what we aspire to as a school community:

Tagline: Belong Here. Excel Anywhere.

Why: Student success is built upon a welcoming and empowering environment, providing pathways to individual excellence.

Vision: We envision a district where students are known, challenged, and prepared to engage in a dynamic world with confidence and character.

Mission: We pursue excellence every day through bold expectations, strong relationships, and meaningful learning, creating a community where students are inspired to think critically, grow confidently, and contribute purposefully.
