A violation may consist of discrimination or harassment because of one's race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age. If discrimination is determined to have occurred, the District will take prompt steps to prevent further occurrence.

This complaint procedure does not preclude informal resolution or restrict the complainant to file, at any time, a formal complaint with the State and Federal agencies or to seek private counsel for complaints alleging discrimination, including harassment. - The incident occurs while the victim was promoting a racial, religious, ethnic/national origin, disability, gender, gender identity or sexual orientation group, such as attending an advocacy group meeting, or participating in a students' gay-straight alliance, or a disability rights demonstration.

Retaliation

No member of the Districts' community may retaliate against any person who reports alleged discrimination or against any person who testifies, assists, or participates in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing related to such discrimination. It is possible to conclude that retaliation has occurred even if no violation is found in regard to the underlying complaint of discrimination.

Retaliation includes, but is not limited to, any form of intimidation, reprisal, or harassment. Retaliation may be redressed through application of the same reporting, investigation, and enforcement procedures as for discrimination. In addition, a person who knowingly makes a false report may be subject to the same action that the District may take against any other individual who has been found to have discriminated. The term "false report" refers only to those made in bad faith and does not include a complaint that could not be corroborated or which did not rise to the level of discrimination.

Informal Process

A complaint may be resolved through a voluntary conversation between the complainant and the party alleged to have discriminated. The conversation will be facilitated by the building administrator. If the building administrator is the party alleged to have discriminated, the Superintendent will appoint the facilitator.

If the complainant or the party alleged to have discriminated is a student under the age of 18, the facilitator will notify the student's parent/guardian if, after initial consultation with the student, it is determined to be in the best interest of the student. Both the complainant and the party alleged to have discriminated may be accompanied by a person of their choice for support and guidance.

If the complainant and the party alleged to have discriminated feel that a resolution has been achieved, the conversation may remain confidential and no further action will need to be taken. The facilitator will report the results of the informal resolution, in writing, to the Director of Student and Family Engagement.

If the complainant, the party alleged to have discriminated, or the District elects not to utilize the informal process, or feels that the informal process is inadequate or has been unsuccessful, the complaint may proceed to the formal process. Any complaint against a District employee must be addressed through the formal process.

Formal Process

- Step 1. A complainant or his/her designated representative (complainant) should file a written complaint with the Assistant Superintendent [Civil Rights Officer], or the Superintendent if the Assistant Superintendent is the subject of the complaint, as soon as possible following the alleged discriminatory incident. Upon request, the Assistant Superintendent or a person designated by the Superintendent will assist the complainant in writing the complaint.

The written complaint must detail the facts and circumstances of the incident. The written complaint will be kept in a centralized and secure location. If a student under the age of 18 is involved, the District will notify his/her parent/guardian immediately, unless, after consultation with the student, notification is determined not to be in the student's best interest.

Step 2. The Assistant Superintendent will investigate the written complaint. If the Assistant Superintendent is the subject of the complaint, the Superintendent will appoint an impartial investigator to conduct the investigation. All parties will be given full and fair opportunity to present information relevant to the issues raised under the complaint.

The investigation may include personal interviews with the complainant, the person alleged to have discriminated against, and any other individuals who may have knowledge of the alleged incident or circumstances giving rise to the complaint. In determining if alleged conduct constitutes discrimination, the investigator will consider the surrounding circumstances, any relevant documents, the nature of the behavior, past incidents or past or continuing patterns of behavior, the relationship between the parties involved, and the context in which the alleged incident occurred. The determination will be based on all of the facts and surrounding circumstances. The District may take immediate steps, at its discretion, to protect the complainant, the person alleged to have discriminated, witnesses, and District employees pending completion of the investigation.

In a timely manner, the investigation will be completed and a written report will be made to the Superintendent. The report will indicate if the complaint has been substantiated as factual and if there are violations of Districts' policies, and it will include recommendations for addressing the violations.

If the Superintendent is the subject of the written complaint, the written report will be made to the Superintendent's alternate, who is the Chair of the Regional School Committee or independent counsel.

Step 3. Following the investigation, the District will take appropriate action in all cases in which a complaint has been substantiated as factual. Any person who is determined to have discriminated shall be subject to action including, but not limited to, warning, suspension, exclusion, expulsion, education, or counseling. Action taken will be consistent with the requirements of any student handbook policy, State and Federal law, and due process procedures for students. As applicable, the District will provide a report of the investigation to the educator licensure unit of the Massachusetts Department of Education.

Step 4. The Superintendent (or Assistant Superintendent) will maintain the complaint file in his/her office. He/she will provide a written report to the party alleged to have discriminated in a timely manner after receipt of the investigator's recommendation. The report will indicate whether (a) the complaint has been substantiated as factual, and (b) there was a violation of District Policy. If there was a policy violation, the District will take appropriate action. She/he will also inform the complainant of the outcome of the investigation, i.e., whether it was substantiated or unsubstantiated.

Appeal Process

If the complaint is not resolved satisfactorily following Step 4 of the formal procedure, either the complainant or the party alleged to have discriminated may request, in writing, within seven (7) business days of being informed of the outcome that the Superintendent (or Assistant Superintendent) reconsider the outcome of the investigation. The Superintendent (or Assistant Superintendent) may, in his/her discretion, reopen the investigation and reconsider the outcome or consider the matter closed.

If the Superintendent investigated the initial complaint, or if the initial complaint was filed against the Superintendent, a person other than the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent will conduct the appeal process.

Confidentiality

The District recognizes that, the complainant and the person alleged to have discriminated have strong interests in maintaining the confidentiality of the complaint and related information. The privacy of all of the parties, including witnesses, will be respected as much as possible, consistent with the District's legal obligations to investigate, take appropriate action, and comply with any discovery or disclosure obligations.

Alternate Complaint Procedure

In addition to filing a complaint through the Districts' complaint procedure, or in place of utilizing the Districts' complaint procedure, a person may elect to exercise other options, including, but not limited to, filing a complaint with outside agencies or filing a private lawsuit.

Outside Agencies

A complaint by a student, employee or applicant for employment in which the complainant alleges discrimination on the basis of sex, race, ethnic origin or disability may be filed with the United States Department of Education, which may be contacted as follows. SC Policy: ACE

NONDISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY

Adoption April 10, 2019

A - Foundations and Commitments

Title II of the American with Disabilities Act of 1992 requires that no qualified individuals with a disability shall, because the District's facilities are inaccessible to or unusable by individuals with disabilities, be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, and activities of the District or be subject to discrimination. Nor shall the District exclude or otherwise deny services, programs, or activities to an individual because of the known disability of a person with whom the individuals is known to have a relationship or association.

Definition: A qualified individual with a "disability" is an individual with a disability who, with or without reasonable modification to rules, policies, or practices, the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers, or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by the District.

Reasonable Modification: The District shall make reasonable modification in policies, practices, or procedures when the modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination on the basis of disability, unless the District can demonstrate that making the modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of the service, program or activity.

Communications: The District shall take the appropriate steps to ensure that communications with applicants, participants, and members of the public with disabilities are as effective as communications with others. To this end, the District shall furnish appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary to afford an individual with a disability an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy benefits of, a service, program, or activity conducted by the District. In determining what type of auxiliary aid and/or service is necessary, the District shall give primary consideration to the requests of the individuals with disabilities.

Auxiliary Aids and Services: "Auxiliary aids and services" include 1) note takers, transcription services, written materials, assisted listening systems, and other effective methods for making aurally delivered materials available to individuals with hearing impairments; 2) qualified readers, taped texts, audio recordings, Braille materials, large print materials, or other effective methods for making visually delivered materials available to individuals with visual impairments; 3) acquisition or modification of equipment or devices; and 4) other similar services and actions.

Notice: The District shall make available to applicants, participants, beneficiaries, and other interested persons information regarding the provisions of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and its applicability to the services, programs, or activities of the District. The information shall be made available in such a manner as the school committee and superintendent find necessary to apprise such persons of the protections against discrimination assured them by the ADA.

Compliance Coordinator: The District shall designate at least one employee to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under Title II of ADA, including any investigation of any complaint communicated to it alleging its non-compliance or alleging any actions that would be prohibited under ADA. The District shall make available to all interested individuals the name, office address, and telephone number of the employee(s) so designated and shall adopt and publish procedures for the prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action that would be prohibited under the ADA. The school District receives federal financial assistance and must comply with the above requirements. Additionally, the school committee is of the general view that:

1. Discrimination against a qualified disabled person solely on the basis of disability is unfair; and
2. To the extent possible, qualified disabled persons should be in the mainstream of life in the school community. Accordingly, employees of the school District will comply with the above requirements of the laws and policy statements of this committee to ensure nondiscrimination on the basis of disability.

LEGAL REFS: Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504, as amended; Education for All Disabled Children Act of 1975; MGL 71B:1 et seq. (Chapter 766 of the Acts of 1972); Title II, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1992, as amended; Board of Education Chapter 766 Regulations, adopted 10/74, as amended through 3/28/78

Discrimination on the basis of sex shall include, but not be limited to, sexual harassment.

M.G.L. c. 151C

M.G.L. c. 151C, § 2 (g) prohibits the sexual harassment of students in any program or course of study in any educational institution and M.G.L. c. 151C, § 1 (e) defines "sexual harassment" as sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when: (a) submission to or rejection of such advances, requests or conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of the provision of the benefits, privileges or placement services or as a basis for the evaluation of academic achievement; or (b) such advances, requests or conduct have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's education by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive educational environment.

The legal definition of sexual harassment is broad and in addition to the above examples, other sexually oriented conduct, whether it is intended or not, that is unwelcome and has the effect of creating an environment that is hostile, offensive, intimidating, to male, female, or gender nonconforming students or employees may also constitute sexual harassment.

While it is not possible to list all those additional circumstances that may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct, which if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment, depending on the totality of the circumstances, including the severity of the conduct and its pervasiveness:

- Unwelcome sexual advances-whether they involve physical touching or not;
- Sexual epithets, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life; comment on an individual's body, comment about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess;
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons;
- Unwelcome leering, whistling, brushing against the body, sexual gestures, suggestive or insulting comments;
- Inquiries into one's sexual experiences;
- Discussion of one's sexual activities; and
- Sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual abuse and sexual coercion as well as physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent (e.g., due to the student's age or use of drugs or alcohol, or because an intellectual or other disability prevents the student from having the capacity to give consent)

Massachusetts General Laws Ch. 119, Section 51 A , requires that public schools report cases of suspected child abuse, immediately orally and file a report within 48 hours detailing the suspected abuse to the Department of Children and Families. For the category of sexual violence, in addition to Section 51A referrals these offences and any other serious matters shall be referred to local law enforcement. Schools must treat seriously all reports of sexual harassment that meet the definition of sexual harassment and the conditions of actual notice and jurisdiction as noted above. Holding a school liable under Title IX can occur only when the school knows of sexual harassment allegations and responds in a way that is deliberately indifferent (clearly unreasonable in light of known circumstance).

Retaliation against a complainant, because they have filed a harassment or sexual harassment complaint assisted or participated in a harassment or sexual harassment investigation or proceeding, is also prohibited. A student or employee who is found to have retaliated against another in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including student suspension and expulsion or employee termination.

The complainant does not have to be the person at whom the unwelcome sexual conduct is directed. The complainant, regardless of gender, may be a witness to and personally offended by such conduct.

Allegations of conduct that meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX will be addressed through the Title IX Sexual Discrimination Grievance Procedure. Allegations of conduct that meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX, and simultaneously meet the definitions of sexual harassment under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (employees), M.G.L. c. 151B (employees), and/or M.G.L. c. 151C (students), will also be addressed through the Title IX Sexual Discrimination Grievance Procedure.

The District’s Title IX Grievance Procedure is available at: [\[Title IX Grievance Procedure\]](#).

Allegations of conduct that do not meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX, but could, if proven, meet the definition(s) of sexual harassment under Title VII (employees), M.G.L. c. 151B (employees), and/or M.G.L. c. 151C (students), will be addressed through the District’s Civil Rights Grievance Procedure. (See exception under Section II, Part 4, Step 4 below).

The definitions of sexual harassment under Title VII, M.G.L. c. 151B, and M.G.L. c. 151C are set out in the Civil Rights Grievance Procedure.

The District’s Civil Rights Grievance Procedure is available at: [\[Civil Rights Grievance Procedure\]](#).

This policy, or a summary thereof that contain the essential policy elements shall be distributed by the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District to its students and employees and each parent or guardian shall sign that they have received and understand the policy.

Non-Discrimination and Access to Equal Education Opportunity

Adopted March 24, 2006, Amended November 14, 2012, Amended April 10, 2019, Amended January 29, 2025

Non-Discrimination and Access to Equal Educational Opportunity

I. Introduction

It is the goal of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District to promote an environment that is free from discrimination and affirmatively provides access to employment and equal educational opportunity. Discrimination, including that based upon race, color, sex, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity of an individual occurring in the workplace or in other settings in which individuals may be entitled access to educational opportunity, is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization. Further, any retaliation against an individual who has complained about discrimination or retaliation against an individual for cooperating with an investigation of a discrimination complaint is similarly unlawful and will not be tolerated. To achieve our goal, acts of discrimination or harassment will not be tolerated and we have provided procedures by which inappropriate conduct will be addressed, if encountered by an employee, student or member of the community.

Because the district takes allegation of discrimination seriously, we will respond promptly to complaints of discrimination in the workplace or educational settings and, where it is determined that such inappropriate conduct has occurred, we will act promptly to eliminate the conduct and impose such corrective action as is necessary, including disciplinary action where appropriate.

Please note that while this policy sets forth our goal of promoting an educational and workplace environment that is free of discrimination, the policy is not designed or intended to limit our authority to discipline or take remedial action for conduct which we deem unacceptable, regardless of whether that conduct satisfies the definition of discrimination.

II. Affirmative Statement of Release:

This policy is consistent with M.G. L. Ch. 75:5: “Every person shall have a right to attend the public schools of the town where he actually resides, subject to the following section. No school committee is required to enroll a persona who does not actually reside in the town unless said enrollment is authorized by law or by the school committee. Any person who violates or assists in the violation of this provision may be required to remit full restitution to the town of the improperly attended public schools. No person shall be excluded from or discriminated against in admission to a public school of any town, or in obtaining the advantages, privileges and courses of study of such public school on account of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, or gender identity.”

All persons should take special note that, as stated above, retaliation against an individual who has complained about discrimination or harassment, and retaliation against an individual for cooperating with an investigation of a complaint, is unlawful and will not be tolerated by this organization.

A student's limited English-speaking ability (see MGL Ch. 71A) shall not be a deterrent to or limitation of a student's admission to a school.
- (5) A school shall determine what courses or units of study are required of a student without regard to the race, color, sex, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity of the student.

When the district has completed its investigation, it will, to the extent appropriate, inform the person filing the complaint and the person alleged to have committed the conduct of the results of that investigation.

The within policy is not intended to create and shall not have the effect of creating any additional judicial or administrative cause of action or remedy (other than the internal, administrative procedures and remedies set forth respectively in Section V, VI, and VII above), nor of affecting in any way the applicable period of time for filing a claim with the EEOC or MCAD.

Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Sex Under Title IX Including Sex-Based Harassment

Adopted March 24, 2006, Amended November 14, 2012, Amended April 10, 2019, Amended January 29, 2025

Non-Discrimination Policy Including on the Basis of Sex Under Title IX Including Sex-Based Harassment

- I. The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s obligation to respond under Title IX requires the District to be aware of discrimination based upon sex, including sex-based harassment. The District has actual notice when an allegation is made known to any school employee. Schools must treat seriously all reports of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment, that meet the definition of harassment and the conditions of actual notice and jurisdiction as noted whether or not the complainant files a formal complaint.

Title IX Sexual Discrimination applies to conduct that occurs within the United States in an education program or activity of the District, regardless of whether such District program or activity is conducted on or off school grounds. Additionally, under Title IX, the District has an obligation to address a sex-based hostile environment under its education program or activity, even when some conduct alleged to be contributing to the hostile environment occurred outside the recipient’s education program or activity or outside the United States. A District education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the District exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred.

II. Designation of a Title IX Coordinator, Responsibilities & Training

(1.) Title IX Coordinator. The District shall designate and authorize at least one employee, referred to herein as a Title IX Coordinator, to coordinate its efforts to comply with its responsibilities under Title IX. In the event the District designates more than one Title IX Coordinator, it must designate one of its Title IX Coordinators to retain ultimate oversight over those responsibilities and ensure the District’s consistent compliance with its responsibilities under Title IX.

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the District’s compliance with its obligations under Title IX and when notified of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX is required to take actions to promptly and effectively end any sex discrimination in its education program or activity, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects, pursuant to Title IX 106.44(f), in part by:

- (i) Treating the complainant and respondent equitably;
- (ii) Offering and coordinating supportive measures, as appropriate, for the complainant and if the grievance procedures has been initiated or an informal resolution process has been offered, for the respondent as well.
- (iii) Notifying parties of the grievance procedure and the informal resolution process if available and appropriate;
- (iv) Initiating the grievance procedure or the informal resolution process if available, appropriate, and agreed to by all parties;
- (v) In the absence of a complaint or the withdrawal of any or all of the allegations in a complaint, and in the absence or termination of an informal resolution process, determining whether to initiate a complaint of sex discrimination that complies with the grievance procedures. To make this fact-specific determination, the Title IX Coordinator must consider, at a minimum, the following factors:
 - (1) The complainant’s request not to proceed with initiation of a complaint;
 - (2) The complainant’s reasonable safety concerns regarding initiation of a complaint;

- (3) The risk that additional acts of sex discrimination would occur if a complaint is not initiated;
- (4) The severity of the alleged sex discrimination, including whether the discrimination, if established, would require the removal of a respondent from campus or imposition of another disciplinary sanction to end the discrimination and prevent its recurrence;
- (5) The age and relationship of the parties, including whether the respondent is an employee of the District;
- (6) The scope of the alleged sex discrimination, including information suggesting a pattern, ongoing sex discrimination, or sex discrimination alleged to have impacted multiple individuals;
- (7) The availability of evidence to assist a decisionmaker in determining whether sex discrimination occurred; and
- (8) Whether the District could end the alleged sex discrimination and prevent its recurrence without initiating its grievance procedures

If, after considering these and other relevant factors, the Title IX Coordinator determines that the conduct as alleged presents an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of the complainant or other person, or that the conduct as alleged prevents the recipient from ensuring equal access on the basis of sex to its education program or activity, the Title IX Coordinator may initiate a complaint.

(vi) If initiating a complaint under paragraph (v) above of this section, notifying the complainant prior to doing so and appropriately addressing reasonable concerns about the complainant’s safety or the safety of others, including by providing supportive measures;

(vii) Regardless of whether a complaint is initiated, taking other appropriate prompt and effective steps, in addition to steps necessary to effectuate the remedies provided to an individual complainant, if any, to ensure that sex discrimination does not continue or recur within the recipient’s education program or activity.

Parental, family, or marital status; pregnancy or related conditions.

The Title IX Coordinator shall coordinate actions on behalf of the District to promptly and effectively prevent sex discrimination and ensure equal access to the District’s education program or activity pursuant to the provisions of Title IX, § SC. 106.40 once a student, or a person who has a legal right to act on behalf of the student, notifies the Title IX Coordinator of the student’s pregnancy or related conditions. These actions shall include:

(i) Informing the student, and if applicable, the person who notified the Title IX Coordinator of the student’s pregnancy or related conditions and has a legal right to act on behalf of the student, of the District’s obligations under paragraphs Title IX, §§ 106.40(b)(1) through (5), § 106.44(j) and providing the District’s notice of nondiscrimination.

(ii) Providing reasonable modifications to the District’s policies, practices, or procedures as necessary to prevent sex discrimination and ensure equal access to the District’s education program or activity. Each reasonable modification must be based on the student’s individualized needs following consultation with the student to determine what modifications are required. A modification is not reasonable if the District can demonstrate that it would fundamentally alter the nature of its education program or activity.

(iii) Providing the student voluntary access to any separate and comparable portion of the District’s education program or activity.

(iv) Providing the student voluntary leave of absence from the District’s education program or activity to cover, at minimum, the period of time deemed medically necessary by the student’s licensed healthcare provider. If the student qualifies for leave under a leave policy maintained by the District that allows a greater period of time than the medically necessary period, the student may take voluntary leave under that policy instead if the student so chooses. When the student returns to the District’s education program or activity, the student must be reinstated to the academic status and, as practicable, to the extracurricular status that the student held when the voluntary leave began.

(v) Providing the student access to a lactation space, which must be a space other than a bathroom, that is clean, shielded from view, free from intrusion from others, and may be used by a student for expressing breast milk or breastfeeding as needed.

(vi) Not requiring supporting documentation under paragraphs (ii) through (v) above unless the documentation is necessary and reasonable for the District to determine the reasonable modifications to make or whether to take additional specific actions under paragraphs (ii) through (v) above

(vii) Treating pregnancy or related conditions in the same manner and under the same policies as any other temporary medical conditions with respect to any medical or hospital benefit, service, plan, or policy the recipient administers, operates, offers, or participates in with respect to students admitted to the recipient's education program or activity.

(viii) Not requiring a student who is pregnant or has related conditions to provide certification from a healthcare provider or any other person that the student is physically able to participate in the recipient's class, program, or extracurricular activity unless:

- The certified level of physical ability or health is necessary for participation in the class, program, or extracurricular activity;
- The recipient requires such certification of all students participating in the class, program, or extracurricular activity; and
- The information obtained is not used as a basis for discrimination prohibited by this part.

(2.) Delegation to designees. As appropriate, the District may delegate, or permit the Title IX Coordinator to delegate, specific duties to one or more designees.

(3.) Training

The District must ensure that the persons described in paragraphs (A) through (D) below receive training related to their duties under Title IX promptly upon hiring or change of position that alters their duties under Title IX and annually thereafter. This training must not rely on sex stereotypes.

A. All employees.

All employees must be trained on:

- (i) The District's obligation to address sex discrimination in its education program or activity;
- (ii) The scope of conduct that constitutes sex discrimination under Title IX, including the definition of sex-based harassment; and
- (iii) All applicable notification and information requirements in response to reports of sexual discrimination and pursuant to the District's Title IX Grievance Procedure.

B. Investigators, decisionmakers, and other persons who are responsible for implementing the District's grievance procedures or have the authority to modify or terminate supportive measures.

In addition to the training requirements in paragraph A. above, all investigators, decisionmakers, and other persons who are responsible for implementing the District's grievance procedures or have the authority to modify or terminate supportive measures must be trained on the following topics to the extent related to their responsibilities:

- (i) The District's obligations to respond to sexual discrimination under Title IX § 106.44;
- (ii) The District's grievance procedures;

(iii) How to serve impartially, including by avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias; and

(iv) The meaning and application of the term "relevant" in relation to questions and evidence, and the types of evidence that are impermissible regardless of relevance under Title IX.

C. Facilitators of informal resolution process.

In addition to the training requirements in paragraph A. above, all facilitators of an informal resolution process must be trained on the rules and practices associated with the District's informal resolution process and on how to serve impartially, including by avoiding conflicts of interest and bias.

D. Title IX Coordinator and designees.

In addition to the training requirements in paragraphs A. through C. above, the Title IX Coordinator and any designees must be trained on their specific responsibilities as set forth in paragraph (1) above and the requirements of the District's recordkeeping system.

III. Receipt of Complaint

The Superintendent in consultation with the Title IX Coordinator shall designate the principal of each school in the district, or their designee (or some other appropriate employee(s)) as the initial entity to receive a sex discrimination complaint, including sexual and sex-based harassment. The Title IX Coordinator shall be informed, as soon as possible, of the filing of the complaint. Nothing in the District's policy shall prevent any person from reporting the prohibited conduct to someone other than those above designated complaint recipients. The investigating officer may receive the complaint orally or in writing, and the investigation shall be conducted in such a way as to maintain confidentiality to the extent practicable under the circumstances and in compliance with applicable law. The investigation will be prompt, thorough, and impartial, and will include, at least, a private interview with the person filing the complaint and with witnesses. Also, the alleged harasser will be interviewed. When the investigation is completed, the complaint recipient will, to the extent appropriate, inform the person filing the complaint and the person alleged to have committed the conduct of the results of that investigation.

IV. Notification Requirements and Confidential Employees

All non-confidential employees are required to notify the Title IX Coordinator when the employee has information about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX.

(1) The District shall notify all participants in the District's education program or activity of how to contact its confidential employees, if any.

(2) The District shall require a confidential employee to explain to any person who informs the confidential employee of conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX:

(i) The employee's status as confidential for purposes of Title IX, including the circumstances in which the employee is not required to notify the Title IX Coordinator about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination;

(ii) How to contact the recipient's Title IX Coordinator and how to make a complaint of sex discrimination; and

(iii) That the Title IX Coordinator may be able to offer and coordinate supportive measures, as well as initiate an informal resolution process or an investigation under the grievance procedures.

A confidential employee is:

(1) An employee of the District whose communications are privileged or confidential under Federal or State law. The employee’s confidential status, for purposes of this part, is only with respect to information received while the employee is functioning within the scope of their duties to which privilege or confidentiality applies;

(2) An employee of the District whom the recipient has designated as confidential under this part for the purpose of providing services to persons related to sex discrimination. If the employee also has a duty not associated with providing those services, the employee’s confidential status is only with respect to information received about sex discrimination in connection with providing those services.

V. Students With Disabilities In the course implementing supportive measures, informal resolution, and/or a grievance procedure, and throughout the same, if either a complainant or respondent is an elementary or secondary student with a disability, the Title IX Coordinator must consult with one or more members, as appropriate, of the student’s Individualized Education Program (IEP) team, 34 CFR 300.321, if any, or one or more members, as appropriate, of the group of persons responsible for the student’s placement decision under 34 CFR 104.35(c), if any, to determine how to comply with the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq., and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 794.

VI. Emergency Removal & Administrative Leave

1. The District may remove a respondent from the District’s education program or activity on an emergency basis, provided that the District undertakes an individualized safety and risk analysis, determines that an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of a complainant or any students, employees, or other persons arising from the allegations of sex discrimination justifies removal, and provides the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal. This provision shall not be construed to modify any rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq., Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 794, or the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.

2. The District may place an employee respondent on administrative leave from employment responsibilities during the pendency of the District’s grievance procedures. This provision shall not be construed to modify any rights under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 794, or the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.

VII. Use of Supportive Measures

Supportive Measures are individualized services reasonably available that are nonpunitive, non-disciplinary, and not unreasonably burdensome to the Complainant or Respondent, while designed to ensure equal educational access, protect safety, and/or deter sexual discrimination.

Supportive Measures may be offered before or after the filing of a Formal Complaint or where no Formal Complaint has been filed. Supportive measures are individualized services reasonably available that are non-punitive, non-disciplinary, and not unreasonably burdensome to the other party, while designed to ensure equal educational access, protect safety, and/or deter sexual discrimination.

Supportive measures available to complainants and respondents include but are not limited to: counseling; extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments; modifications of work or class schedules; campus escort services; mutual restrictions on contact between the parties; changes in work locations; leaves of absence; increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the building and/or campus; and other similar measures. Violations of the restrictions imposed by supportive measures may be considered a violation of school rules and may also be considered in determining whether sexual discrimination has occurred.

VIII. Grievance Procedure

Allegations of conduct that meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX will be addressed through the Title IX Sexual Discrimination Grievance Procedure. Allegations of conduct that meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX, and simultaneously meet the definitions of sexual harassment under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (employees), M.G.L. c. 151B (employees), and/or M.G.L. c. 151C (students), will also be addressed through the Title IX Sexual Discrimination Grievance Procedure.

Allegations of conduct that do not meet the definition of sexual discrimination, including sex-based harassment under Title IX, but could, if proven, meet the definition(s) of sexual harassment under Title VII (employees), M.G.L. c. 151B (employees), and/or M.G.L. c. 151C (students), will be addressed through the District's Civil Rights Grievance Procedure. (See exception under Section II, Part 4, Step 4 below). The definitions of sexual harassment under Title VII, M.G.L. c. 151B, and M.G.L. c. 151C are set out in the Civil Rights Grievance Procedure.

IX. Informal Resolution

After a Formal Complaint is filed, and prior to determining whether sex discrimination occurred, the District may, at its discretion, opt to offer and facilitate informal resolution options, such as mediation or restorative justice. Both parties must give voluntary, informed, written consent to attempt any offered informal resolution. Any informal resolution under this Procedure will be facilitated by trained personnel.

- (1) The informal resolution process is not available to resolve allegations that an employee engaged in sex-based harassment of a student or if such a process would conflict with Federal, State or local law.
- (2) The informal process is voluntary, and the respondent may terminate or decline any informal process at any time and resume the Formal Complaint grievance process. The District, as a condition of participation, must not require the parties to waive the right to an investigation and determination of a complaint as a condition of enrollment or continuing enrollment, or employment or continuing employment, or the exercise of any other right.
- (3) The informal process shall not exceed thirty (30) calendar days, during which time the timelines of the Formal Complaint process will be stayed.

X. Due Process and Fairness

The District shall provide due process protections which include the following:

- 1) Equitable treatment of complainants and respondents.
- 2) Presumption that the respondent is not responsible until a determination is made.
- 3) Prompt timeframes for all major stages.
- 4) Reasonable steps to protect privacy of parties and witnesses during the grievance procedures.
- 5) Objective evaluation of relevant evidence and the exclusion of impermissible evidence.
- 6) If the District adopts procedures that apply to the resolution of only some complaints, articulate principles for how the District will determine which procedures apply.
- 7) Notice of allegations to the parties containing sufficient details to permit a party to prepare for any initial interview and proceed with a factual investigation.
- 8) Permitted dismissals in certain circumstances so long as the District offers an appeal and, as appropriate, supportive measures, and takes other steps to ensure sex discrimination does not continue or recur.
- 9) Permitted consolidation of complaints in certain circumstances.

- 10) Burden on the District to gather evidence and decide what is relevant or impermissible.
- 11) Equal opportunity for the parties to present fact witnesses and other evidence.
- 12) Equal opportunity for the parties to access the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence or an accurate description of this evidence (and if the District provides access to a description, it must provide access to the underlying evidence upon the request of any party); a reasonable opportunity to respond; and a requirement that the District take reasonable steps to prevent and address unauthorized disclosures.
- 13) A process for assessing credibility when credibility is in dispute and relevant.
- 14) Use of a preponderance of the evidence standard of proof to determine whether sex discrimination occurred, unless the clear and convincing evidence standard is used in all other comparable proceedings, in which case that standard may be used.
- 15) The decision maker shall not be the same person as the Title IX Coordinator or investigator unless the District otherwise provides for the same in the Grievance Procedure and specifically sets forth under what circumstances a single-investigator model may be used.
- 16) The facilitator for any informal resolution process shall not be the same person as the investigator or the decisionmaker in the District’s grievance procedures.
- 17) The decisionmaker for any appeal shall not have taken part in an investigation of the allegations or dismissal of the complaint;
- 18) If it is determined that sex discrimination occurred, the following actions will be taken:
 1. Appropriate remedies will be provided to the complainant and others affected to address the consequences of the discrimination.
 2. Individuals found responsible for the discrimination will face disciplinary actions, consistent with the Dudley-Charlton RSD policies and procedures.
 3. Prompt and effective measures will be implemented to ensure that sex discrimination does not continue or recur, including training, policy revisions, and enhanced oversight.
- 19) Title IX Coordinators, investigators, and decision-makers must be free from bias or conflict of interest;
- 20) Equal opportunity for parties to appeal, where an appeal is offered;
- 21) Upon filing a formal complaint, the school must give written notice to the parties containing sufficient details to permit a party to prepare for any initial interview and proceed with a factual investigation. For K-12 schools a hearing is optional but the parties must be allowed to submit written questions to challenge each other’s credibility before the decision-maker makes a determination. After the investigation, a written determination must be sent to both parties explaining each allegation, whether the respondent is responsible or not responsible, including the facts and evidence on which the conclusion was based by applying either the preponderance of the evidence or the clear and convincing standard; however, a school can use the lower preponderance standards only if it uses that standard for conduct code violations that do not involve sexual harassment but carry the same maximum disciplinary sanction. As long as the process is voluntary for all parties, after being fully informed and written consent is provided by both parties, a school may facilitate informal resolution of a sexual complaint.
- 22) An informal investigation process that may, upon the request of the complainant be followed by a formal process.

XI. Record Keeping

The District shall create records in accordance with its obligations under Title IX as noted below and maintain the same for a period of seven (7) years:

(1) For each complaint of sex discrimination, records documenting the informal resolution process and/or the grievance procedures and the resulting outcome.

(2) For each notification the Title IX Coordinator receives of information about conduct that reasonably may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX or records documenting the actions the District took to meet its obligations under Title IX.

(3) For all training all materials used to provide training to meet its obligations under Title IX. A District must make these training materials available upon request for inspection by members of the public.

Adopted March 5, 2025

The School Committee is committed to providing a safe, positive and productive educational environment where students can achieve the highest academic standards. No student shall be subjected to harassment, intimidation, bullying, or cyber-bullying.

"Bullying" is the repeated use by one or more students or school staff members of a written, verbal, or electronic expression, or a physical act or gesture, or any combination thereof, directed at a target that:

- causes physical or emotional harm to the target or damage to the target's property;
- places the target in reasonable fear of harm to themselves, or of damage to their property;
- creates a hostile environment at school for the target;
- infringes on the rights of the target at school; or
- materially and substantially disrupts the education process or the orderly operation of a school

"Cyber-bullying" means bullying through the use of technology or any electronic communication, which shall include, but shall not be limited to, any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data or intelligence of any nature.

Cyber-bullying shall also include the creation of electronic medium in which the creator assumes the identity of another person or knowingly impersonates another person as author of posted content or messages, if the creation or impersonation creates any of the conditions enumerated in the definition of bullying.

Cyber-bullying shall also include the distribution by electronic means of a communication to more than one person or the posting of material on an electronic medium that may be accessed by one or more persons, if the distribution or posting creates any of the conditions enumerated in the definition of bullying.

Bullying and cyber-bullying may occur in and out of school, during and after school hours, at home and in locations outside of the home. When bullying and cyber-bullying are alleged, the full cooperation and assistance of parents/guardians and families are expected.

For the purpose of this policy, whenever the term bullying is used it is to denote either bullying, or cyber-bullying.

Bullying is prohibited:

- On school grounds;
- On property immediately adjacent to school grounds;
- At school-sponsored or school-related activities;
- At functions or programs whether on or off school grounds

Bullying and cyber-bullying are prohibited at a location, activity, function or program that is not school-related or through the use of technology or an electronic device that is not owned, leased or used by the school district if the act or acts in question:

- create a hostile environment at school for the target;
- infringe on the rights of the target at school; and/or
- materially and substantially disrupt the education process or the orderly operation of a school.

Prevention and Intervention Plan

The Superintendent and/or their designee shall oversee the development of a prevention and intervention plan, in consultation with all district stakeholders, which may include teachers, school staff, professional support personnel, school volunteers, administrators, community representatives, local law enforcement agencies, students, parents and guardians, consistent with the requirements of this policy, as well as state and federal laws. The bullying prevention and intervention plan shall be reviewed and updated at least biennially.

The Principal is responsible for the implementation and oversight of the bullying prevention and implementation plan within his or her school.

Reporting

Students, who believe that they are a target of bullying, observe an act of bullying, or who have reasonable grounds to believe that these behaviors are taking place, are obligated to report incidents to a member of the school staff. The target shall, however, not be subject to discipline for failing to report bullying.

Each school shall have a means for anonymous reporting by students of incidents of bullying. No formal disciplinary action shall be taken solely on the basis of an anonymous report.

Any student who knowingly makes a false accusation of bullying shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Parents or guardians, or members of the community, are encouraged to report an incident of bullying as soon as possible.

A member of a school staff shall immediately report any instance of bullying the staff member has witnessed or become aware of to the school principal or their designee.

Investigation Procedures

The Principal or their designee, upon receipt of a viable report, shall promptly contact the parents or guardians of a student who has been the alleged target or alleged perpetrator of bullying. The actions being taken to prevent further acts of bullying shall be discussed.

The school Principal or a designee shall promptly investigate the report of bullying, using a Bullying/Cyberbullying Report Form which may include interviewing the alleged target, alleged perpetrator, staff members, students and/or witnesses.

Support staff shall assess an alleged target's needs for protection and create and implement a safety plan that shall restore a sense of safety for that student.

Confidentiality shall be used to protect a person who reports bullying, provides information during an investigation of bullying, or is witness to or has reliable information about an act of bullying.

If the school Principal or a designee determines that bullying has occurred, they shall take appropriate disciplinary action and if it is believed that criminal charges may be pursued against the perpetrator, the principal shall consult with the school's resource officer and the Superintendent to determine if criminal charges are warranted. If it is determined that criminal charges are warranted, the local law enforcement agency shall be notified.

The investigation shall be completed within fourteen school days from the date of the report. The parents or guardians shall be contacted upon completion of the investigation and informed of the results, including whether the allegations were found to be factual, whether a violation of this policy was found, and whether disciplinary action has or shall be taken. At a minimum the Principal or their designee shall contact the parents or guardians as to the status of the investigation on a weekly basis.

Disciplinary actions for students who have committed an act of bullying or retaliation shall be in accordance with district disciplinary policies.

Each school shall document any incident of bullying that is reported per this policy and a file shall be maintained by the Principal or designee. A monthly report shall be provided to the Superintendent.

Confidentiality shall be maintained to the extent consistent with the school's obligations under law.

Retaliation

Retaliation against a person who reports bullying, provides information during an investigation of bullying, or witnesses or has reliable information about bullying, shall be prohibited.

Target Assistance

The school district shall provide counseling or referral to appropriate services, including guidance, academic intervention, and protection to students, both targets and perpetrators, affected by bullying, as necessary.

Training and Assessment

Age-appropriate, evidence-based instruction on bullying prevention shall be incorporated into the curriculum for all K to 12 students.

STUDENT RECORDS

JRA Adopted March 26, 2025

To provide students with appropriate instruction and educational services, it is necessary for the school district to maintain extensive and sometimes personal information about them and their families. It is essential that pertinent information in these records be readily available to appropriate school personnel, be accessible to the student's parent/guardian and/or the student in accordance with law, and yet be guarded as confidential information.

Student health records are part of a student's temporary record and as such are protected from disclosure to third parties without the written consent of the eligible student or parent/guardian. These records are accessible to the eligible student, the student's parent/guardian, and authorized school personnel.

Under G. L. c. 111, s.70F, a health care provider cannot disclose information about an individual's AIDS/HIV status without specific, informed, written consent of the individual. Therefore, it is recommended that school nurses keep this information in a separate confidential part of the health record, as personal nursing notes. Under 603 CMR 23.04, information that is maintained in the personal files of a school employee is not part of the student record if it is not accessible to or revealed (written or orally) to authorized school personnel or third parties. The information may be shared with the student and with a substitute or replacement nurse without becoming a part of the student's temporary record.

The Superintendent will provide for the proper administration of student records in keeping with state and federal requirements and shall obtain a copy of the state student records regulations. The temporary record of each student will be destroyed no later than seven years after the student transfers, graduates, or withdraws from the School District. Written notice to the eligible student and their parent/guardian of the approximate date of destruction of the temporary record and their right to receive the information in whole or in part, shall be made at the time of such transfer, graduation, or withdrawal. The student's transcript may only be destroyed 60 years following their graduation, transfer, or withdrawal from the school district.

The Committee wishes to make clear that all individual student records of the school district are confidential. This extends to giving out individual addresses and telephone numbers.

603 CMR 23.04

JRA-R Adopted March 26, 2025, Amended August 20, 2025

603 CMR 23.00 is promulgated by the Board of Education pursuant to its powers under M.G.L. c.71, s.34D which directs that "the board of education shall adopt regulations relative to the maintenance of student records by the public elementary and secondary schools of the Commonwealth," and under M.G.L. c.71, s.34F which directs that "the board of education shall adopt regulations relative to the retention, duplication and storage of records under the control of school committees, and except as otherwise required by law may authorize the periodic destruction of any such records at reasonable times." 603 CMR 23.00 was originally promulgated on February 10, 1975, and was reviewed and amended in June 1995. 603 CMR is in conformity with federal and state statutes regarding maintenance of and access to student records and is to be construed harmoniously with such statutes.

Application of Rights

603 CMR 23.00 is promulgated to ensure parent/guardian and students' rights of confidentiality, inspection, amendment, and destruction of students' records and to assist local school systems in adhering to the law. 603 CMR 23.00 should be liberally construed for these purposes.

1. These rights shall be the rights of the student upon reaching 14 years of age or upon entering the ninth grade, whichever comes first. If a student is under the age of 14 and has not yet entered the ninth grade, these rights shall belong to the student's parent/guardian.
2. If a student is from 14 through 17 years or has entered the ninth grade, both the student and his/her parent/guardian, or either one acting alone, shall exercise these rights.
3. If a student is 18 years of age or older, he/she alone shall exercise these rights, subject to the following. The parent/guardian may continue to exercise the rights until expressly limited by such student. Such student may limit the rights and provisions of 603 CMR 23.00 which extend to his/her parent/guardian, except the right to inspect the student record, by making such request in writing to the school Principal or Superintendent of Schools who shall honor such request and retain a copy of it in the student record. Pursuant to M.G.L. c.71, s.34E, the parent/guardian of a student may inspect the student record regardless of the student's age.
4. Notwithstanding 603 CMR 23.01(1) and 23.01(2), nothing shall be construed to mean that a school committee cannot extend the provisions of 603 CMR 23.00 to students under the age of 14 or to students who have not yet entered the ninth grade.

Definition of Terms

The various terms as used in 603 CMR 23.00 are defined below:

School administrators, teachers, counselors and other professionals who are employed by the School Committee or who are providing services to the student under an agreement between the School Committee and a service provider, and who are working directly with the student in an administrative, teaching, counseling and/or diagnostic capacity. Any such personnel who are not employed directly by the School Committee shall have access only to the student record information that is required for them to perform their duties.

2. Administrative office staff and clerical personnel, including operators of data processing equipment or equipment that produces microfilm/microfiche, who are either employed by the School Committee or are employed under a School Committee service contract, and whose duties require them to have access to student records for purposes of processing information for the student record. Such personnel shall have access only to the student record information that is required for them to perform their duties.

3. The evaluation team that evaluates a student.

Eligible student: shall mean any student who is 14 years of age or older or who has entered 9th grade, unless the School Committee acting pursuant to 603 CMR 23.01(4) extends the rights and provisions of 603 CMR 23.00 to students under the age of 14 or to students who have not yet entered 9th grade.

Such notice may be included in the routine information letter required under 603 CMR 23.10.

- d. Upon receipt of the request (initial and annual) the school must immediately notify the custodial parent by certified and first class mail, in English• and the primary language of the custodial parent, that it will provide the non-custodial parent with access after 21 days, unless the custodial parent provides the principal with documentation that the non-custodial parent is not eligible to obtain access as set forth in 603 CMR 23.07\(5\)\(a\).

STAFF TECHNOLOGY ACCEPTABLE USE

Adopted Date: 06.25.2014

The purpose of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s Staff Technology Acceptable Use Policy is to provide guidelines for using District technology resources while complying with the Children’s Internet Protection Act (CIPA), the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and other District policies, as well as all federal and state laws.

For purposes of this policy, “staff” refers to all Dudley-Charlton Regional School District employees, contracted service personnel, and any volunteers working within the District or schools. It is the responsibility of the staff to read, understand, and abide by the rules of this Acceptable Use Policy.

In addition, “technology resources,” “computers,” “network infrastructure,” and “cloud computing” all refer to any and all equipment, services, or online resources, in whole or in part, owned, maintained, installed, or operated by or contained within the buildings or managed by the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District.

Amendments and modifications to this policy may be approved by the school committee from time to time and will be posted for viewing.

I. Introduction

This Acceptable Use Policy shall serve as a statement on the appropriate use of any and all technology resources available to staff of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District including, but not limited to, District owned computers, tablets, printers, network, electronic mail system (e-mail), District provided websites, cloud computing technologies, and Internet access. It is the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s goal to promote educational excellence with the assistance of these technology resources. This Acceptable Use Policy addresses many state requirements intended to ensure the integrity of personal information as outlined by the Massachusetts personal privacy laws and is also necessary to obtain E-rate financial assistance.

II. Responsibilities and Expectations

A. Security and Passwords

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District has a legal duty to reasonably protect all personal data (staff and student) in the District’s possession from unauthorized disclosure. To that end, all staff must uphold any and all security methods that have been developed to protect this sensitive data.

Under no circumstances should staff divulge their personal account password to anyone for any reason or attempt to access someone else’s personal accounts. There are management software and or directory information exceptions and credentialed education software exceptions for the strict purpose of teaching in the Dudley-Charlton RSD. All passwords are unique and are the first and most important security measure in place to protect files and computer access. If, at any time, a password or computer has been compromised or even suspected of being compromised, staff must contact the District IT Department immediately.

Computers should never be left “unlocked” while unattended. Staff must lock or log out of their computers when not in use in order to protect confidential data and files. All District managed computers will automatically lock after twenty minutes of inactivity. Students are not allowed to use staff accounts under any circumstance. If staff chooses to allow a student to use their computer, the staff member must log out so the student can log in with a “student” account. Staff should not display personal data on their computers if there is a chance that it could be seen by others who are not authorized to view that data. Staff should limit the amount of school related data that leaves any school building to the minimal amount absolutely necessary for a staff member to perform his or her essential job functions. This data, whether residing on laptops, USB drives, email attachments, or any other method of transport, must be reasonably protected from loss or theft. Staff has an even greater responsibility to safeguard any information transported outside of our buildings so that it remains confidential.

B. Internet Access

The Internet is provided to staff as an educational resource and it is the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s intention that the use of the Internet be for that purpose and not for personal use. Internet access provides a vast array of immediately accessible, invaluable resources. Along with this substantial educational benefit comes the potential to access online resources that include information or material that lacks educational value and can be inaccurate, controversial, objectionable, offensive, defamatory and even illegal.

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District does not condone the access or use of inappropriate materials at any time and prohibits the use of District technology resources to access such material. The District filters the content of many of these inappropriate resources but it is ultimately the responsibility of the staff to assure that any access of material is appropriate for educational use. Therefore, all staff will be held responsible for ensuring that their activities conform to this acceptable use policy. Under no circumstances should staff attempt to access websites that are blocked by District content filters by attempting to bypass the filters using various methods including, but not limited to, proxy services, VPN connections or other software. If a staff member feels that a website should not be blocked, they should submit a request through the District IT department’s help desk system to have the website reviewed.

C. Social Networking, Blogs, Personal Websites and Forums

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District prohibits staff from publishing content of any kind to any social network, non-District supplied blog, or online message forum while using the District’s technology resources. Exceptions to this rule may be granted to specific school-related activities only with express, written permission from the respective building principal.

Staff should be aware that their online behavior, whether posting as a staff member or on their own personal time, has the potential to reflect negatively upon the District and to lead to disciplinary action where warranted. While the District recognizes the division between school and personal activities, staff is reminded to be cautious and to consider the ramifications of any public posting (including without limitation any text, image or link thereon) and how it might affect their professional reputation and that of the District, and their future. Under no circumstance should any posting be represented as an official Dudley-Charlton Regional School District position or opinion absent specific, written authorization to do so. Staff must review and abide by all other District policies, including those concerning the use of social networks.

D. Dudley-Charlton Regional School District Websites

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s websites have been established to communicate events and information to staff, students, parents, and the community. In order to provide the proper message to the community, staff is required to abide by common sense guidelines when posting content on District websites (as with any posting on the Internet). Any such posting should be educationally related, responsibly developed, professionally delivered, and correct for the target audience. Links to off-site resources that are not controlled by the District should be scrutinized thoroughly and on a regular basis to ensure they remain appropriate. In order to maintain the safety of Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s students, use of student work, pictures of students, or any other information that would allow for the identification of any student is strictly forbidden without the express, prior, written permission of the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the student. All information about students posted online must comply with the District’s policy on student records, the Federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, and any other applicable state and federal laws.

All online content may be inspected without notice to ensure that it conforms to this acceptable use policy as well as local, state, and federal laws. Any content that does not meet these requirements will be removed immediately and notice given to the staff member responsible. Such removal and notice shall be in addition to any other remedy the District may have as to inappropriate material, all of which the District expressly reserves.

E. Dudley-Charlton Regional School District Instant Messaging

Communications by Dudley-Charlton Regional Schools District provided Instant Messaging is continuously logged by the District. Since all electronic communication is subject to the requirements of M.G.L. Chapter 66 and therefore a public record unless exempted as such by very limited statutory or judicially-recognized exceptions or privilege, a copy of the message log must be maintained and archived.

F. Dudley-Charlton Regional School District Email

All Dudley-Charlton Regional School District staff is assigned an email account for the sole purpose of communicating during the course of their employment with other staff, peers, parents/guardians, and in specific cases, students. District email must not be used for any personal, non-school related purpose. All email messages sent and received, including any attachment(s), are subject to the requirements of M.G.L. Chapter 66 and are not considered to be private. Therefore, all emails sent and received, including attachments, are considered part of the public record and will be treated as such as required by law. All email messages are archived to conform to these requirements.

When communicating by email, staff members are deemed to be representing the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District in an official capacity. All communication should be professional, respectful, and appropriate. Under no circumstances should any information be conveyed by email that would risk divulging any personal information. All communications must conform to any and all confidentiality guidelines as well as local, state, and federal laws.

Staff is expected to use common sense and reasonable care when replying to or forwarding any email communication so that only the appropriate recipients will receive the information it contains and to ensure that all confidentiality is maintained.

All school-related email communications must be sent through staff school email accounts; staff is not allowed to use their personal accounts for school business. Staff email accounts are accessible from any Internet-capable computer and should be used even when working off school premises on school related business.

Email messages to students, when such are necessary, should be classroom related topics only. Staff must be cautious with any email communication that strays from the educational subject area and must notify their building principal of any such instance that occurs as soon as feasible. For student crisis emails, e.g., threats of harm to self or others, staff must immediately contact school administration during the school day or emergency services outside of the school operational hours.

G. Dudley-Charlton Regional School District Student Information System

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District uses a student information system (SIS) to track student demographics, grades, attendance, and other confidential information. Staff is required to maintain a strict, high level of confidentiality with all information contained within this system as required by District policy and state and federal regulations.

Under no circumstance may staff allow access to the SIS information by an unauthorized user. This includes, but is not limited to, casual or “over the shoulder” viewing of computer displays, unattended computers or print outs, or failure to log out of the SIS when not in use. Staff is forbidden to use any data contained within the SIS for unauthorized use such as, but not limited to, sharing contact information, disclosure of health or legal alerts, divulging information to a non-custodial parent other than in accordance with law, or any other use that violates local, state, or federal confidentiality.

H. Dudley-Charlton Regional School District Equipment

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District supplies technology resources and equipment to its staff for educational purposes. Use of these resources or equipment for recreational, personal, commercial, or other non-educational purposes is strictly forbidden. Staff shall bear full responsibility and liability, whether legal, financial, or otherwise, for their actions when using the District’s equipment.

In addition, staff will not intentionally cause any adverse effect upon or performance of any equipment or network, including, but not limited to, intentional damage, failure to protect equipment from potential damage, deleting another person’s files, storing unnecessarily large files (such as music, pictures or videos), installation of unauthorized software, or any other action that would cause failure or deteriorated use of the District’s equipment. Staff is required to immediately notify the District IT Department if they have identified a possible security problem so the appropriate measures can be taken by the District IT Department to rectify the situation. Staff will not reconfigure devices in any way that will prevent the District IT Department from managing or monitoring the device. This includes, but is not limited to, removing or replacing the operating system or configuring the device to “dual boot” multiple operating systems, installing software firewalls or other security software for the purpose of blocking connectivity to the device by the District IT Department or changing system settings from their default “managed” configuration. Staff may install software on their device as long as the appropriate licenses have been purchased and the software does not interfere with any other District software or abrogate any District policy or any law.

I. Personal Devices

Staff is allowed to connect “personal” devices including laptops, tablets and cell phones to the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District’s “Guest” wireless networks, provided the devices are used as an educational resource and all activities conform to this acceptable use policy. “Personal” devices are defined as any device not owned by the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District. Should staff decide to bring in “personal” devices, they do so at their own risk. The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged “personal” devices. Staff should understand the District IT Department will provide no technical support or assistance for “personal” devices. This includes, but is not limited to, wireless connectivity issues, virus/malware infections, loss of data, hardware and software issues. Staff should understand that all “Guest” wireless network traffic is filtered, logged and monitored. Staff should also understand that unauthorized use of resources through this access may give rise to a claim for damages and/or be a criminal offense. Connecting “personal” devices including, but not limited to, computers, tablets, network printers, wired or wireless routers, switches, wireless access points/extenders or network scanners to “non-guest” wired or wireless networks is not allowed. However, staff may connect some “personal” peripherals such as mice, keyboards, and USB connected printers and scanners directly to District owned computers with the understanding that the “personal” peripherals will not be supported by the District IT Department.

III. Privilege

The use of Dudley-Charlton Regional School District technology resources is a privilege, not a right. Therefore, the District offers no guarantee of availability of any technology resource or equipment. The use of any or all technology resource or equipment may be revoked, either temporarily or permanently, for any reason outlined in this Acceptable Use Policy or for other, good cause.

IV. Intentional Violations

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District is aware that violations of this policy may occur under circumstances where the staff is involuntarily routed to websites containing inappropriate information or material. Upon arriving at such websites, it is the responsibility of the staff member to immediately exit such site as quickly as possible. The District is also aware that commercial vendors and other individuals may secure E-Mail addresses of staff members and use these addresses to propagate or otherwise deliver viruses, worms, commercial advertisements, solicitations, etc., under circumstances where the staff member has no control, intention, or desire to access or transmit the offending information or material. Accordingly, disciplinary action under this policy shall only result from a knowing or intentional violation of this policy.

Notwithstanding, the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District reserves the right to discipline any staff member for a violation of this policy where it is apparent that the staff member knew, or should have known, that a violation of this policy was likely to occur as a result of the action, or inaction, of the staff member in question. As soon as possible, staff shall delete the unwelcomed material and remove it from the District’s computer systems, unless the preservation of such material is necessary to pursue disciplinary or legal action against the staff member or another staff member or student. Further, staff should take appropriate steps to discourage and/or prevent further unwelcomed deliveries or transmissions, including, if necessary, reporting the situation to the District IT Department so that appropriate steps can be taken to prevent further violations of this policy, be they knowing, intentional or inadvertent and unintentional.

V. Disciplinary Actions

Staff violation of this Acceptable Use Policy and/or other Dudley-Charlton Regional School District policies shall result in, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

- Restriction, suspension or revocation of access privileges
- Written warnings or a letter of reprimand in the personnel file
- Other remedies, such as suspensions and terminations as covered under Massachusetts law
- Referral to the appropriate legal authorities for possible criminal prosecution
- Civil liability

The District will cooperate fully with local, state and federal officials in any investigation related to any illegal activity conducted through the use of the District's technology resources. In the event there is a claim that a user has violated this policy in using the technology resources, he/she will be provided with a written notice of the suspected violation and an opportunity to present an explanation before an administrator.

VI. Privacy

Staff has no right of privacy with regard to their use of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District's technology resources, which includes but is not limited to, District computers, network, electronic mail system (e-mail), websites and Internet access. The District retains ownership and possessory control of its technology resources. The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District does not guarantee, and staff should not have any expectation of, confidentiality, privacy, security or ownership of the content of any information accessed, sent, received, created or stored thereon. All staff should realize that electronic communications and other information sent through the Internet are accessible by third parties, specifically the Internet Service Provider.

The District networked technology resources are maintained and managed by the District IT Department in such a way as to ensure its availability and reliability in performing the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District educational mission. Staff are advised that a system administrator or other authorized District staff member may, at any time, without advance notice to staff, monitor, access, modify, remove, review, retrieve and/or disclose the subject, content and appropriateness of any and all information stored or transmitted on District technology resources, including information that may have been deleted but still exists on the system. All staff is put on notice that deleted messages may be retrieved or restored at any time. During routine maintenance the District IT Department or designee may delete files stored on any of the District technology resources.

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District reserves the right to record all Internet addresses and electronic communications accessed by staff. Likewise, the District has the right to determine what information is posted on its website and it will routinely monitor all technology resources in order to maintain their integrity and to ensure compliance with this policy. Any and all violations of this policy detected by the District IT Department will be reported to the school principal or appropriate District Administrator for disciplinary action.

VII. Liability

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District makes no warranty of any kind, whether express or implied, for the technology services it is providing. While the District will make reasonable efforts to preserve data, the responsibility for it lies with the staff. Staff should regularly backup all-important files to removable media so they are protected and can be restored in the event of a hardware failure. The District will not be held responsible for any damages staff may suffer, including but not limited to, loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries or service interruption caused by its own negligence or a staff member's errors or omissions. The District will not be responsible for financial obligations arising through the unauthorized use of the system. The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District specifically denies and disclaims any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its technology resources. All staff must fully understand that the use of any information obtained through the Internet is at their own risk. To the extent that use of such District resources is not required as a condition of employment with the District, each staff member in choosing to make such discretionary use shall be deemed to have released and waived any and all claims and entitlement as to any loss, damage or expense arising out of or in connection with such use.

VIII. Copyright and Other Proprietary Materials

It is the intent of the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District to adhere to the provisions of the U.S. Copyright Act, and the license agreements and/or policy statements contained in software packages or other resources used by the District. All staff shall respect the copyright and proprietary interest of any materials accessed through District technology resources. Staff may not duplicate copyrighted materials, graphics or software, including school owned software, without permission from the copyright holder, unless the use falls within the legal parameters of the Fair Use Doctrine, whether for personal use or for the use of others. The improper duplication or use of copyrighted materials is a violation of this policy and is subject to disciplinary action, as well as possible civil liability and criminal prosecution.

IX. Complaints

Should any concerns arise regarding violations of this policy, the school principal or appropriate District administrator shall document all complaints in writing and shall conduct an investigation of the complaint and report to the superintendent any disciplinary action taken.

Staff who are disciplined as a result of this policy have the same appeal procedure as any disciplinary action, which is through the school principal or appropriate District employee, the superintendent or as outlined in their respective collective bargaining agreement.

X. Enforcement

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District uses technology protection measures (such as web content filters, firewalls, etc.) to filter or block Internet access to some websites that are not in accordance with District policy. The technology protection measure that blocks or filters access may be temporarily disabled by appropriate personnel upon request for bona fide research purposes by an adult. Websites that are blocked yet are educationally appropriate and not in violation of District policy can be unblocked if reported to the District IT Department. Only the District IT Director or his/her designee will have the authority to modify content filters, and the decision as to any such modification lies in the sound discretion of such Director. Logs created by any technology device can be used for the purposes of detection, identification, and enforcement of any part of this policy, as well as any other lawful purpose.

XI. Exemptions

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District recognizes that the job requirements of several staff positions may conflict with the specific language of this Policy. Accordingly, the superintendent may exempt such positions from portions of this policy as deemed necessary to carry out their individual responsibilities. It shall be the responsibility of superintendent to identify the specific sections of the policy that are inapplicable. An addendum shall be attached to the employee’s signed Acceptable Use Agreement Form indicating the nature and extent of the exemption. Among the positions recognized as entitled to an exemption are superintendent, building principals, finance director, office support staff and District IT Department. A principal shall make such designation for an individual school. Schools or departments that wish to publish a web page must identify an appropriately qualified publisher and/or author.

As with all instructional materials or publication used by or representing the District or the individual schools, the principal or superintendent, respectively, are ultimately responsible for accuracy and appropriateness of the information made available at the web site. Concern about the content of any page(s) created by students or staff should be directed to the principal or to the Superintendent's office when related to the individual schools' web site.

Web sites developed under contract for the District or within the scope of employment by the District employees are the property of the District.

Due to the dynamic nature of the World Wide Web, this policy is to be reviewed and updated on an annual basis, or more frequently if required.

SC Policy EDC

SOCIAL NETWORKING

Adopted Date: September 14, 2011, Amended July 16, 2014

1. Internet Acceptable Use Policy still in force

This policy is adopted in addition to, and not as a substitute for, the Dudley-Charlton Regional School District's Internet Acceptable Use Policy, IJNDB and IJNDBA, which governs the use of the school District's technological resources.

2. General Concerns

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District recognizes the proliferation and, in some instances, usefulness of online conversation between staff members and students or between staff and students' parents/guardians. However, due to the nature of social networking sites, there exists a risk that, without care and planning, appropriate boundaries may not be maintained between one's professional life and personal life, and between staff and students. Staff members must always be mindful of how they present themselves to the world online and otherwise.

Should a staff member friend a student on Facebook, subscribe to a student's Twitter account, regularly engage in email chat with a student, exchange text messages with students, or engage in other electronic communication, the District is concerned, and the staff member should be concerned, that such activities may undermine the staff member's authority to maintain discipline, may encourage inappropriate behaviors and may compromise the staff member's ability to remain reasonably objective in dealings with his/her students and the assessment of these students. As District staff, we should also be mindful of the risks posed to students' and others' rights of privacy and confidentiality, to other staff members, and to the District in the event of unreasonable or illegal breach of such rights, whether intentional or caused by a failure to exercise due care.

3. Expectations of Staff

With these concerns in mind, the District has adopted and will publish this Social Networking Policy so as to clearly inform the staff and others of the District's expectations and requirements concerning staff members' use of social networks such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, personal email accounts, text message features of cell phones, use of blogs, and other electronic or technologically based communication systems.

1. Before endeavoring to establish any social networking account, a staff member should carefully familiarize himself or herself with the features of any such account. For example, Facebook requires account holders to take specific steps to privatize the information they place online. Staff must educate themselves to these features of Facebook or any other social networking site selected. Staff will be held responsible should any information intended to be private become public due to ignorance of the features of the social network he/she has decided to use or his/her failure to properly use such features.

2. District staff must also know that any information intended to be shared privately with a recipient could be redistributed by such recipient, or become public due to the staff member's knowledge or consent. The same principles that apply to in- person or written communication must be applied to online and other electronic communication. In essence, nothing posted online or electronically communicated is ever truly private.
3. Employees of the District are required as a condition of employment to keep the boundary line between professional life and personal life clearly drawn. Despite the proliferation of social networking sites, the District maintains the expectation that its staff members will exercise the requisite forethought in all electronic communications to be sure that the aforementioned boundary line never becomes blurred.

For example, if the District does not maintain a web portal for communications with students and families and a staff member wishes to establish a Facebook account through which he or she will communicate, he or she should establish a Facebook identity that is separate from his/her personal Facebook identity. He/she must use his/her educational Facebook account, exclusively, to communicate with students and their families on matters directly related to education being provided by the District. The friends associated with such educational Facebook account should be limited to members of the educational community, such as administrators, teachers, students, and parents/guardians of such students. Staff members must reject friend requests from individuals who do not fit into any of these categories.

4. At all times, and in the use of any form of communication, staff members must maintain student privacy rights and the rights of employees and others to have their personal and medical information kept confidential. Information that is protected by law from disclosure to third parties shall not be communicated in a way that unreasonably exposes such information to access or retrieval by those third parties. (For example, no such information shall be sent online or by other electronic communication unless adequately encrypted.) By way of illustrative example only, a staff member shall not post confidential student information on the wall, the information section or any part of an educational Facebook account that may be accessible to another staff member's Facebook friends associated with that account. If a staff member wishes to communicate on matters directly related to education provided by the District privately with a student through the educational Facebook account, such communication shall be conveyed only through the private email/message feature of Facebook, so that only the student may view the message and respond to it.
5. As to any matter relating to education the District is providing a student, staff members are to communicate electronically with students and parents/guardians only through school-based resources, such as school-provided email or web portal accounts. Use of one's personal email account to discuss school business with students and parents/guardians is prohibited. It should be noted that when a staff member uses his/her personal email account the communication falls within the provisions of the Massachusetts Public Records Law as well as being subject to discovery in litigation in certain circumstances. As one consequence (among others), all the staff member's personal emails would have to be searched in the event of public records request, and in the event of ambiguity much of the staff member's personal communication could well become public. Such use of personal email also prevents the archiving of such messages through the District's automatic email archiving system and might well result in a staff member and/or the District having to conduct a very expensive and time-consuming search in response to such a request.

Staff is also discouraged from using home telephones and personal cell phones to communicate with students and their families. The provisions in #5 above, except to the extent that a particular telephonic communication does not generate a written document, apply to telephonic communication as well. And staff members at all times must bear in mind that cellular telephones do not provide secure communication, but on the contrary are susceptible to being intercepted or inadvertently overheard by third parties at any time. No conversation relating to a confidential matter shall ever be conducted by cellular telephone except in case of an immediate emergency which precludes any other reasonable method of communication, and in the event of such an emergency communication the staff member shall prepare and submit to his or her immediate supervisor, without any avoidable delay whatsoever a written report detailing in full the need for and content of the communication.

6. If a staff member were to inadvertently convey a school-related message to a student or parent/guardian on the staff member's private account, the staff member must save such email to his/her school email account or print and save a paper copy of such email and file it in the appropriate school file, and maintain its confidentiality as he/she would any other document concerning that student. Any document created or received by a public employee in his or her capacity as such is subject to Commonwealth and federal laws regarding retention and disclosure except as specifically exempted under the public records law, as well as to discovery by court order in certain circumstances.
7. No matter what medium of communication a staff member selects, he/she should adhere to appropriate staff member/student boundaries. Staff members are role models, not students' friends. District employees are expected to always conduct themselves in accordance with this understanding.
8. This policy is not intended to infringe upon a staff member's right to speak publicly on matters of public concern, or to communicate with fellow members of their union on workplace issues, so long as such communication adheres to appropriate time, place, and manner restrictions and does not interfere with the performance of your job duties. However, when District employees speak via social networking sites or tools on matters concerning work, they speak as employees and not as citizens, and certain restrictions apply to their freedom of expression. Those restrictions are intended to preserve student safety and confidentiality, and to maintain an employee's status as a staff member who should: (a) command and receive the respect of students, (b) be able to maintain order and discipline in the classroom, and (c) remain objective with respect to their students.
9. The District has, expressly reserves, and in any situation it deems appropriate will exercise: (a) the requisite authority to monitor all communications which arise out of or in connection with one's position as an employee, including all such referenced above in the manner permitted by law; and (b) its right to take appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including discharge from employment, due to inappropriate behavior, such as failure to adhere to the standards and limitations set forth in this policy, including by way of example only, any such which undermines an employee's authority or ability to instruct or maintain control and discipline of students, compromises his/her objectivity, or is harmful to a student's safety or best interest. The District also reserves the right to advise appropriate legal officials of any violation of law. Employees should also be mindful at all times that any inappropriate communication may give rise to liability for oneself (e.g., for defamation or unreasonable invasion of privacy) and that the District could be sued in connection with same and thus incur costs of defense and other possible loss and expense. Any staff member who becomes aware of a violation of this policy should immediately notify his or her immediate supervisor of same.

10. Staff members should not access their private Facebook or other social networking accounts using school District computer resources.
11. When communicating as an employee of the District, or concerning any subject matter which falls, or which a person could reasonably perceive as falling, within the ambit of one's duties as such an employee, one must be aware that a reader may assume that he or she speaks for the District or may judge the quality of the education provided by the District based thereon. Therefore, all communications in any such circumstance must be professional at all times and must not reflect negatively on the services which the District provides any student nor communicate any information which the employee knows, or with reasonable care should know, is inaccurate.
12. In the use of a Facebook account or other social networking site or blog, a District employee may not, without express permission from the superintendent of schools or his/her designee, use the school's logo, likeness, or any school photograph or other property belonging to the school, nor, in violation of the law, post or include any material protected by copyright or trademark. In no event shall a District employee include in any communication or posting on such an account or site, information which would allow a third party to ascertain information about a student which might place the student at risk. By way of example only, this would include a student's photograph with identifying information such as address, telephone number, birth date, school that the student attends, etc.

(No reference to Facebook herein is intended to limit application of the policy's provisions to use of that program. All online, electronic, or computerized means of communication are subject to this policy. Given the rapid pace of technological change it is not possible to identify all proprietary or commonly named or identified means of such communications, so this policy is to be broadly construed in such a way as to effectuate the purposes expressed in Section 2 above and expressed in or reasonable to be inferred from other sections of the policy.)

M.G.L. c. 149 s. 185 WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTIONS

An employer shall not take any retaliatory action against an employee because the employee does any of the following:

1. Discloses, or threatens to disclose to a supervisor or to a public body an activity, policy or practice of the employer, or of another employer with whom the employee's employer has a business relationship, that the employee reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to law, or which the employee reasonably believes poses a risk to public health, safety or the environment;
2. Provides information to, or testified before, any public body conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry into any violation of law, or a rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to law, or activity, policy or practice which the employee reasonably believes poses a risk to public health, safety or the environment by the employer, or by another employer with whom the employee's employer has a business relationship; or
3. Objects to, or refuses to participate in any activity, policy or practice which the employee reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to law, or which the employee reasonably believes poses a risk to public health, safety or the environment.

(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the protection against retaliatory action provided by subsection (b) (1) shall not apply to an employee who makes a disclosure to a public body unless the employee has brought the activity, policy or practice in violation of a law, or a rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to law, or which the employee reasonably believes poses a risk to public health, safety or the environment, to the attention of a supervisor of the employee by written notice and has afforded the employer a reasonable opportunity to correct the activity, policy or practice.

(2) An employee is not required to comply with paragraph (1) if he: (A) is reasonably certain that the activity, policy or practice is known to one or more supervisors of the employer and the situation is emergency in nature; (B) reasonably fears physical harm as a result of the disclosure provided; or (C) makes a disclosure to a public body as defined in clause (B) or (D) of the definition for "public body" in subsection (a) for the purpose of providing evidence of what the employee reasonably believes to be a crime.

(d) Any employee or former employee aggrieved of a violation of this section may, within two years, institute a civil action in the superior court. Any party to said action shall be entitled to claim a jury trial. All remedies available in common law tort actions shall be available to prevailing plaintiffs. These remedies are in addition to any legal or equitable relief provided herein. The court may: (1) issue temporary restraining orders or preliminary or permanent injunctions to restrain continued violation of this section; (2) reinstate the employee to the same position held before the retaliatory action, or to an equivalent position; (3) reinstate full fringe benefits and seniority rights to the employee; (4) compensate the employee for three times the lost wages, benefits and other remuneration, and interest thereon; and (5) order payment by the employer of reasonable costs, and attorneys' fees.

(e)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), in any action brought by an employee under subsection (d), if the court finds said action was without basis in law or in fact, the court may award reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs to the employer.

(2) An employee shall not be assessed attorney's fees under paragraph (1) if, after exercising reasonable and diligent efforts after filing a suit, the employee moves to dismiss the action against the employer, or files a notice agreeing to a voluntary dismissal, within a reasonable time after determining that the employer would not be found liable for damages.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish the rights, privileges or remedies of any employee under any other federal or state law or regulation, or under any collective bargaining agreement or employment contract; except that the institution of a private action in accordance with subsection (d) shall be deemed a waiver by the plaintiff of the rights and remedies available to him, for the actions of the employer, under any other contract, collective bargaining agreement, state law, rule or regulation, or under the common law.

(g) An employer shall conspicuously display notices reasonably designed to inform its employees of their protection and obligations under this section, and use other appropriate means to keep its employees informed. Each notice posted pursuant to this subsection shall include the name of the person or persons the employer has designated to receive written notifications pursuant to subsection (c).

CONFIDENTIALITY CONCERNING IEPs AND 504 ACCOMMODATION PLANS

All documents pertaining to the student are confidential including IEPs and 504 Plans. It is important that this confidentiality is respected as every IEP and 504 includes information relevant to the student's performance and disability. Psychological and related reports may also be included in the file. These documents are written annually and are updated throughout the year as needed.

All discussions and information shared during an IEP or 504 meeting is confidential. All comments and conversations in the student support services department are confidential and should not be discussed with others. Specific concerns regarding a student should not be discussed with anyone outside the school setting who is not directly involved with the student unless the parent has provided a written consent or release of information. Any discussions and/or recommendations regarding a student's IEP/504 Plan should only occur within the context of the Team meeting

STAFF ATTENDANCE REVIEW PROCEDURES

Standards and Indicators of Effective Teaching Practice identify consistent attendance as an indicator of effective teaching practice – Indicator IV-F Professional Responsibilities 2. Reliability & Responsibility.

If necessary, whenever an employee exceeds five occurrences of absence or establishes a pattern due to their use of sick leave* the principal of the building to which they are assigned may conduct a non-disciplinary attendance review subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. An occurrence of absence is defined as any absence of one or more consecutive days regardless of duration.
2. Although no discipline will result from the meeting, a union representative may be present at the employee's option.
3. The following topics will be discussed at the meeting:
 - a) Any assistance which the bargaining unit member believes might help avoid future absence. However, this provision creates no requirement that the employee request such assistance and/or that the employer grant the assistance requested;
 - b) Any anticipated future absences in the current school year;
 - c) Steps which may be taken to ameliorate the effects of absences on the students for which the unit member is responsible; and
 - d) An expression by the Principal as to specific concerns, if any, which the Principal has concerning the unit members' past absences or anticipated future absences. The unit member is not expected to reply to any such concerns at this meeting.
4. Once a staff member has been absent for three consecutive absences, the building administrator will notify the Superintendent.
5. Weekly attendance will be reviewed by the designated Administrative Assistant responsible for Substitutes Online and the building Principal.

*Staff members should reference their Collective Bargaining Agreement for additional information on Article XII Sick Leave, Article XIV Temporary Leaves, and Article XV Extended Leaves

LEAVE FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

Massachusetts General Law c.209A mandates that public and private employers with 50 or more employees grant up to 15 days of unpaid leave in any 12-month period if the employee or a covered family member of the employee is a victim of abusive behavior. Covered employers are required to notify employees of their rights and responsibilities under the law.

Key features related to employee rights and responsibilities include the following: 1) the leave must be directly related to the abusive behavior, including, for example, seeking medical attention, counseling, victim services or legal assistance; 2) employees are required to exhaust all available leave before using the unpaid domestic violence leave, unless this requirement is waived by the employer; 3) employees cannot lose any benefits accrued prior to the leave and employees are entitled to restoration of their original job or an equivalent position; 4) employees must provide employers with advance notice of their decision to utilize the leave unless a threat of imminent danger exists; and 5) employees who fail to give advance notice of the decision to utilize leave are required to notify the employer within three work days that the leave is being taken under the law.

Key features related to employer rights and responsibilities include the following: 1) employers cannot take any negative action against employees with unauthorized absences if, within 30 days of the last absence, the employee submits documentation that the absence was due to domestic violence; 2) employers may require documentation showing that the employee or the employee's family member has been a victim of abuse; and 3) employers may not retaliate or discriminate against employees for exercising their rights under the law.

The law is enforced by the Attorney General, who can seek injunctive and equitable relief against violators of the law. Additionally, employees may bring private enforcement actions under the same enforcement provisions used to pursue private claims for violations of the Massachusetts wage and hour laws. As a result of the passage of the new law, covered Massachusetts employers will need to develop domestic violence leave policies that comply with the law, update their employee handbooks, and educate their employees on the new leave requirements.

FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT (FMLA)

What is FMLA?

FMLA provides eligible employees up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave for their own serious illness, birth or adoption of a child, or the care of a seriously ill child, spouse or parent. FMLA also provides up to 26 weeks in a single 12-month period for military caregiver leave for employees caring for a parent, spouse, child or “next of kin” who is a “covered service member” with a serious injury/illness incurred in the line of duty. FMLA also provides up to 12 weeks of leave to parents, spouses or children of National Guard or Reserve personnel on active duty (or call to active-duty status) for “qualifying exigencies” (*see definition below).

Who is covered?

All Dudley-Charlton Regional School District employees who have worked in the District for at least 12 months and worked 1250 hours over the previous 12-months. The District defines the 12-month period as a “rolling” 12-month period, i.e., the 12 months begins when the employee takes his or her first FMLA day.

What are the Reasons for Leave under FMLA?

Eligible employees may seek leave during any 12-month period for the following reasons:

- The employee requires medical leave for a “serious health condition” that makes him/her unable to perform his/her job;
- Among other things, this generally includes when the employee needs to be absent from work for a period of time due to surgery. Short-term conditions for which treatment and recovery are very brief generally are not “serious health conditions”,
- Caring for a newborn child, or newly adopted son or daughter;
- Placement with the employee of a son or daughter or child in foster care;
- Caring for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition

A “serious health condition” is an illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee’s job or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities. Subject to certain conditions, the “continuing treatment” requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days combined with at least two (2) visits to a health care provider; or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment; or incapacity due to pregnancy; or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of “continuing treatment.” A serious health condition of either the employee or family member requires either inpatient care or continuing treatment by a healthcare provider. “Continuing treatment” is defined as two or more visits within 30 days of the first incapacity. Chronic conditions, i.e., conditions that continue over an extended period of time that may cause episodic periods of incapacity may be a “serious health condition” under FMLA.

Special leave entitlement relating to an employee’s family member in the Armed Forces:

A spouse, son, daughter, parent, or “next of kin” may request up to 26 workweeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury/illness incurred (including the aggravation of a preexisting condition) in the line of active duty. (Such leave is available for up to five years after the military member’s separation from the military).

How can FMLA Leave be taken?

The leave may be in on a continuous basis (e.g., a block of twelve (12) weeks), or if required, employees may take FMLA on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule (select days or hours, for example) because of the employee’s own serious health condition, when medically necessary to care for their parent, spouse or child with a serious health condition, to care for a covered service member, or due to a qualifying exigency. Those eligible employees who are employed principally in an instructional capacity and request leave that is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, and would be on leave for greater than 20 percent of the total number of working days in the period during which the leave would extend, may be required either to take leave for periods of a particular duration, not to exceed the duration of the planned medical treatment, or to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position offered by the Schools for which the employee is qualified. Other rules exist for how instructional employees may use leave depending upon when it will coincide with the end of a semester, i.e., depending upon how many weeks before the end of a semester it would occur.

- For birth or adoption, intermittent or reduced workweek leave can only be taken with the employer’s consent
- Whether or not you apply for FMLA leave, if you take sick leave or any other leave that meets the definitional requirements of an FMLA leave, the leave will be designated simultaneously as FMLA leave as well.

Will I get the same job back when I return?

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District is required to reinstate you to the same job or an “equivalent position” within the District with the “same or substantially similar duties and responsibilities” at the end of your FMLA leave.

What will happen to my health benefits?

The Dudley-Charlton RSD will continue to pay for its portion of your health insurance for the time you are on leave; provided, however, that you must continue to make your regular payment of the employee portion of the premium.

How much notice do I need to give?

You are required to give at least 30 days’ notice if the need for leave is foreseeable. If the leave is not foreseeable, notice must be given as soon as practicable. For planned treatments, you must consult with your Principal and make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the school’s operation, subject to approval of your healthcare provider. Employees are ordinarily expected to consult with their Principal before scheduling treatments in order to work out a treatment schedule which best suits the needs of both the employee and the School.

Prior to the commencement of any foreseeable leave, (or if the leave is unforeseeable, as soon practicable), you must submit a letter to the Human Resources Director requesting the leave.

What documentation do I need to provide?

After receiving the employer's request for certification, the employee must provide the requested certification within fifteen (15) calendar days, unless not practicable under the circumstances. An employee can voluntarily choose - but cannot be required - to comply with the certification requirement by providing the employer with an authorization, release or waiver permitting the employer to communicate directly with the health care provider of the employee or family member. Section 825.306(e).

When an employee submits a complete and sufficient certification signed by a health care provider, the employer cannot ask the health care provider for additional information. However, an employer is permitted to contact the health care provider for clarification and authentication of the medical certification, after giving the employee an opportunity to cure any deficiencies. Section 825.307(a). To make such contact, the employer must use a health care provider, a human resource professional, a leave administrator, or a management official. Under no circumstances may the employee's direct supervisor contact the employee's health care provider.

In situations where the certification is incomplete, the employer shall advise an employee that the certification is incomplete or insufficient and shall state in writing what additional information is needed. Employees must be given seven (7) calendar days (unless not practicable) to cure the problem by presenting additional information. Section 825.305(c). If an employee does not comply, the employer may deny the leave. Section 825.305(d)

“Authentication” means providing the health care provider with a copy of the certification and requesting verification that the information contained on the certification form was completed and/or authorized by the health care provider who signed the document. No additional medical information may be requested. Again, if the employee voluntarily provides a HIPAA compliant authorization, the employer can request records and discuss the condition with the provider.

“Clarification” means contacting the health care provider to understand the handwriting on the medical certification or to understand the meaning of a response. Employers may not ask health care providers for additional information beyond that required by the certification form.

If the Dudley-Charlton RSD has reason to doubt the validity of the medical certification, we may request a second opinion at our own expense. In the event of conflicting opinions, the Dudley-Charlton RSD may pay for a third opinion which will be final and binding.

A Certification is also required to take leave to care for a covered service member or a qualifying exigency.

The Dudley-Charlton RSD will require that you obtain a “fitness for duty” certification from your health care provider in order to return to work.

PARENTAL LEAVE

Parental leave of absence will be granted to any Dudley-Charlton RSD employee in accordance with the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 as amended or in accordance with Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 149, Section 105D, whichever provides the most favorable treatment to the employee. Parental leave will run concurrently with FLMA leave if the employee is eligible for such leave.

Bargaining unit members should reference their Collective Bargaining Agreement Article XVI for information on Parental Leave.

NONDISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF GENDER IDENTITY

An Act Relative to Gender Identity (Chapter 199 of the Acts of 2011),¹ which became effective on July 1, 2012, amended several Massachusetts statutes prohibiting discrimination on the basis of specified categories, to include discrimination on the basis of gender identity. Among the statutes amended is G.L. c. 76, § 5, prohibiting discrimination on the basis of gender identity against students who enroll in or attend the public schools. G.L. c. 76, §5 now reads as follows:

Every person shall have a right to attend the public schools of the town where he actually resides, subject to the following section. No school committee is required to enroll a person who does not actually reside in the town unless said enrollment is authorized by law or by the school committee. Any person who violates or assists in the violation of this provision may be required to remit full restitution to the town of the improperly-attended public schools. No person shall be excluded from or discriminated against in admission to a public school of any town, or in obtaining the advantages, privileges and courses of study of such public school on account of race, color, sex, gender identity, religion, national origin or sexual orientation.

In June 2012, the Massachusetts Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (Board) adopted revised Access to Equal Education Opportunity Regulations, 603 CMR 26.00, and Charter School Regulations, 603 CMR 1.00, to reflect the broadened student anti-discrimination provision in G.L. c. 76, §5. The Board also directed the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (Department) to provide guidance to school Districts to assist in implementing the gender identity provision.

All students need a safe and supportive school environment to progress academically and developmentally. Administrators, faculty, staff, and students each play an important part in creating and sustaining that environment. This guidance is intended to help school and District administrators take steps to create a culture in which transgender and gender nonconforming students feel safe, supported, and fully included, and to meet each school’s obligation to provide equal educational opportunities for all students, in compliance with G.L. c. 76, §5 and the state regulations.

Below are general principles based on the law that address common issues regarding transgender and gender nonconforming students. The guidance offers case studies based on the experiences of schools and students in Massachusetts, and reflects the need to consider issues on a case-by-case basis. The list of issues is not exhaustive, and the examples are intended to be illustrative, not prescriptive.

Definitions

Understanding the terminology associated with gender identity is important to providing a safe and supportive school environment for students whose rights are protected under the law. The following terms appear in this document and are defined. Although these are the most commonly used terms, students may prefer other terms to describe their gender identity, appearance, or behavior. The term “gender identity” is specifically defined in the Mass. General Laws, as amended by An Act Relative to Gender Identity (the gender identity law).

- Gender expression: the manner in which a person represents or expresses gender to others, often through behavior, clothing, hairstyles, activities, voice, or mannerisms.
- Gender identity: as defined in part at G.L. c. 4, § 7, is “a person’s gender-related identity, appearance or behavior, whether or not that gender-related identity, appearance or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the person’s physiology or assigned sex at birth...”
- Gender nonconforming: a term used to describe people whose gender expression differs from stereotypic expectations. The terms “gender variant” or “gender atypical” are also used.
- Transgender: an umbrella term used to describe a person whose gender identity or gender expression is different from that traditionally associated with the assigned sex at birth.

The Law

The gender identity law amended G.L. c. 76, § 5,² to establish that no person shall be excluded from or discriminated against in admission to a public school of any town, or in obtaining the advantages, privileges and courses of study of such public school on account of gender identity, among other characteristics. The amended Access to Equal Educational Opportunity regulations, 603 CMR 26.00, and the non-discrimination provision of the Charter School regulations, 603 CMR 1.00, require schools to establish policies and procedures, provide training, and implement and monitor practices to ensure that obstacles to equal access to school programs are removed for all students, including transgender and gender nonconforming students.

The gender identity law reflects the reality that transgender and gender nonconforming students are enrolled in Massachusetts public schools. These students, because of widespread misunderstanding and lack of knowledge about their lives, are at a higher risk for peer ostracism, victimization, and bullying. The 2011 National School Climate Survey by the Gay, Lesbian & Straight Education Network (GLSEN), found that 75.4% of transgender students had been verbally harassed in the previous year, 32.1% had been physically harassed, and 16.8% had been physically assaulted. Educators play an essential role in advocating for the well-being of these students and creating a school culture that supports them.

Understanding Gender Identity

The gender identity law defines “gender identity” to mean “a person's gender-related identity, appearance or behavior, whether or not that gender-related identity, appearance or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with the person's physiology or assigned sex at birth.”³ The law also states that “gender-related identity may be shown by providing evidence including, but not limited to, medical history, care or treatment of the gender-related identity, consistent and uniform assertion of the gender-related identity or any other evidence that the gender-related identity is sincerely held as part of a person's core identity; provided, however, that gender-related identity shall not be asserted for any improper purpose.”⁴

Transgender youth are those whose assigned birth sex does not match their internalized sense of their gender (their “gender-related identity”), and gender nonconforming youth are those whose gender-related identity does not meet the stereotypically expected norms associated with their assigned sex at birth. A transgender boy, for example, is a youth who was assigned the sex of female at birth but has a clear and persistent identity as male. A transgender girl is a youth who was assigned the sex of male at birth but has a clear and persistent identity as female. Gender nonconforming youth range in the ways in which they identify as male, female, some combination of both, or neither.

The responsibility for determining a student’s gender identity rests with the student or, in the case of young students not yet able to advocate for themselves, with the parent.⁵ One’s gender identity is an innate, largely inflexible characteristic of each individual’s personality that is generally established by age four, although the age at which individuals come to understand and express their gender identity may vary based on each person’s social and familial social development.⁶ As a result, the person best situated to determine a student’s gender identity is that student himself or herself.

In one Massachusetts town, the parents of a preschool-age biologically female child noted throughout the child’s early years that their child identified as a boy. For as long as the parents could remember, the child preferred to play with boys rather than girls, wanted a short haircut, rejected wearing any clothing that the child identified as “something a girl would wear,” and ignored anyone who called him by his stereotypically feminine name. When it was time for the child to enter kindergarten, the child said to his parents, “You have to tell them when I go to kindergarten that I’m a boy.”

Consistent with the statutory standard, a school should accept a student’s assertion of his or her gender identity when there is “consistent and uniform assertion of the gender-related identity, or any other evidence that the gender-related identity is sincerely held as part of a person’s core identity.” If a student’s gender-related identity, appearance, or behavior meets this standard, the only circumstance in which a school may question a student’s asserted gender identity is where school personnel have a credible basis for believing that the student’s gender-related identity is being asserted for some improper purpose.

In most situations, determining a student’s gender identity is simple. A student who says she is a girl and wishes to be regarded that way throughout the school day and throughout every, or almost every, other areas of her life, should be respected and treated like a girl. So too with a student who says he is a boy and wishes to be regarded that way throughout the school day and throughout every, or almost every other area of his life. Such a student should be respected and treated like a boy.

The statute does not require consistent and uniform assertion of gender identity as long as there is “other evidence that the gender-related identity is sincerely held as part of [the] person’s core identity.” Many transgender people experience discrimination, and some experience violence due to their status. Some environments may feel safe and inclusive, and others less so, challenging a person’s ability to live consistently with one gender identity in all aspects of life. For example, it is possible that a biologically male student with a female gender identity who lives as a girl does not express her female gender identity all the time. In one case, such a student agreed to present as a boy when visiting relatives until the student’s parents could explain the student’s transgender identity to them. The fact that the student did not exclusively assert her female identity did not alter the fact that she had a female gender identity.

Confirmation of a student’s asserted gender identity may include a letter from a parent, health care provider, school staff member familiar with the student (a teacher, guidance counselor, or school psychologist, among others), or other family members or friends. A letter from a social worker, doctor, nurse practitioner, or other health care provider stating that a student is being provided medical care or treatment relating to her/his gender identity is one form of confirmation of an asserted gender identity. It is not, however, the exclusive form upon which the school or student may rely. A letter from a clergy member, coach, family friend, or relative stating that the student has asked to be treated consistent with her/his asserted gender identity, or photographs at public events or family gatherings, are other potential forms of confirmation. These examples are intended to be illustrative rather than comprehensive.

In one Massachusetts middle school, a biologically male student explained to her guidance counselor that she was a transgender girl who expressed her female gender identity only at home. The stress associated with having to hide her female gender identity at school was having a negative impact on her mental health, as well as on her academic performance. The student and her parents asked if it would be okay if she expressed her female gender identity at school. The guidance counselor assured the student and her parents that she could do so. The fact that the student presented no documentation to support her gender identity was not a concern since the school had no reason to believe the request was based on anything other than a sincerely held belief that she had a female gender identity.

Gender Transition

Many, though not all, transgender youth undergo the experience of gender transition. The term “gender transition” describes the experience by which a person goes from living and identifying as one gender to living and identifying as another. For most youth, and for all young children, the experience of gender transition involves no medical intervention. Rather, most transgender youth will undergo gender transition through a process commonly referred to as “social transition,” whereby they begin to live and identify as the gender consistent with their gender-related identity. Some transgender youth who are close to reaching puberty, or after commencing puberty, may complement social transition with medical intervention that may include hormone suppressants, cross-gender hormone therapy, and, for a small number of young people, a range of gender-confirming surgeries. The decision about whether and how to undergo gender transition is personal and depends on the unique circumstances of each individual. There is no threshold medical or mental health diagnosis or treatment requirement that any student must meet in order to have his or her gender identity recognized and respected by a school. Some transgender and gender nonconforming students are not openly so at home for reasons such as safety concerns or lack of acceptance. School personnel should speak with the student first before discussing a student’s gender nonconformity or transgender status with the student’s parent or guardian. For the same reasons, school personnel should discuss with the students how the school should refer to the student, e.g., appropriate pronoun use, in written communication to the student’s parent or guardian.

Names and Pronouns

The issue of the name and pronoun to use in referring to a transgender student is one of the first that schools must resolve to create an environment in which that student feels safe and supported. Transgender students often choose to change the name assigned to them at birth to a name that is associated with their gender identity. As with most other issues involved with creating a safe and supportive environment for transgender students, the best course is to engage the student, and in the case of a younger student, the parent, with respect to name and pronoun use, and agree on a plan to initiate that name and pronoun use within the school. The plan also could include when and how this is communicated to students and their parents. In the case of a transgender student who is enrolling at a new school, it is important that the school respect the student’s privacy (see the following section) and chosen name.

In one situation where a transgender girl was entering high school, she and her parent asked the principal to inform her teachers that even though her school records indicate that her name is John, she goes by the name Jane and uses female pronouns. The school principal sent the following memorandum to the student's classroom teachers: "The student John Smith wishes to be referred to by the name Jane Smith, a name that is consistent with the student's female gender identity. Please be certain to use the student's preferred name in all contexts, as well as the corresponding pronouns. It is my expectation that students will similarly refer to the student by her chosen name and preferred pronouns. Your role modeling will help make a smooth transition for all concerned. If students do not act accordingly, you may speak to them privately after class to request that they do. Continued, repeated, and intentional misuse of names and pronouns may erode the educational environment for Jane. It should not be tolerated and can be grounds for student discipline. If you need any assistance to make sure that Jane Smith experiences a safe, nondiscriminatory classroom atmosphere, please contact me or Ms. O'Neill. – Mr. Jones, Principal."

Massachusetts' law recognizes common law name changes. An individual may adopt a name that is different from the name that appears on his or her birth certificate provided the change of name is done for an honest reason, with no fraudulent intent. Nothing more formal than usage is required.⁷ Hence, when requested, schools should accurately record the student's chosen name on all records, whether or not the student, parent, or guardian provides the school with a court order formalizing a name change. The Department has a procedure in place to update name changes and gender markers in the Student Information Management System (SIMS) upon request. The document Assigning State Assigned Student Identifiers (SASIDs) to Massachusetts' Public-School Students, which may be found at <http://www.doe.mass.edu/infoservices/data/sims/sasid/>, guides schools through changing names and gender markers on school records.

In sum, school personnel should use the student's chosen name and pronouns appropriate to a student's gender identity, regardless of the student's assigned birth sex. For those students who have been attending a school and undergo gender transition while attending the same school, it is important to develop a plan for initiating use of the chosen name and pronouns consistent with the student's gender identity.

Privacy, Confidentiality, and Student Records

Under state law, information about a student's assigned birth sex, name change for gender identity purposes, gender transition, medical or mental health treatment related to gender identity, or any other information of a similar nature, regardless of its form, is part of the individual's student record (see Massachusetts Student Records Regulations, 603 CMR 23.00), is confidential, and must be kept private and secure, except in limited circumstances. 603 CMR § 23.04.⁸ One circumstance is when authorized school personnel require the information to provide administrative, teaching, counseling, or other services to the student in the performance of their official duties. For transgender students, authorized

⁷ For certain transactions, such as banking and applying for governmental benefits or licenses, it may be necessary to have a formal legal document establishing one's change of name for identity and other purposes.

⁸ The federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 USC 1232g, also protects the privacy of education records and requires that personally identifiable information be kept secure and confidential.

school personnel could include individuals such as the principal, school nurse, classroom teacher(s), or guidance or adjustment counselor.

When a student new to a school is using a chosen name, the birth name is considered private information and may be disclosed only with authorization as provided under the Massachusetts Student Records Regulations. If the student has previously been known at school or in school records by his or her birth name, the principal should direct school personnel to use the student's chosen name. Every effort should be made to update student records (for example, Individualized Education Programs) with the student's chosen name and not circulate records with the student's assigned birth name. Records with the student's assigned birth name should be kept in a separate, confidential file.

One school nurse dealt with information in the student's file by starting a new file with the student's chosen name, entered previous medical information (for example, immunizations) under the student's chosen name, and created a separate, confidential folder that contained the student's past information and birth name.

When determining which, if any, staff or students should be informed that a student's gender identity is different from the assigned birth sex, decisions should be made in consultation with the student, or in the case of a young student, the student's parent or guardian. The key question is whether and how sharing the information will benefit the student.

In one case, parents of a transgender male-to-female elementary school student requested that only the school principal and the school nurse be aware that the student was assigned the sex of male at birth. After a discussion with the school principal, the parents agreed that the student's teacher, the school secretary, and the District superintendent would also be informed. In this situation, the school principal kept the student's birth certificate in a separate, locked file that only the principal could access, and put a note in the student's other file saying that the principal had viewed the student's birth certificate. In another situation, where a biological male came to school after April vacation as a girl, the school principal and guidance counselor, in collaboration with the student and her parents, developed a plan for communicating information regarding the student's transition to staff, parents, and students. The plan included who was going to say what to whom, and when the communication would take place.

Transgender and gender nonconforming students may decide to discuss and express their gender identity openly and may decide when, with whom, and how much to share private information. A student who is 14 years of age or older, or who has entered the ninth grade, may consent to disclosure of information from his or her student record. If a student is under 14 and is not yet in the ninth grade, the student's parent (alone) has the authority to decide on disclosures and other student record matters.⁹

⁹ See 603 CMR §§23.01 and 23.07. If a student is from 14 through 17 years of age or has entered ninth grade, both the parent and the student may make decisions concerning the student record, or either the student or the parent acting alone may decide.

Gender Markers on Student Records

A gender marker is the designation on school and other records that indicates a student’s gender. For most students, records that include an indication of a student’s gender will reflect a student’s assigned birth sex. For transgender students, however, a documented gender marker (for example, “male” or “female” on a permanent record) should reflect the student’s gender identity, not the student’s assigned sex. This means that if a transgender student whose gender identity is male has a school record that reflects an assigned birth sex as female, then upon request by the student or, in the case of young students not yet able to advocate for themselves, by the parent or guardian, the school should change the gender marker on the record to male.¹⁰ Schools are advised to collect or maintain information about students’ gender only when necessary.

One school reviewed the documentation requests it sent out to families and noticed that field trip permission forms included a line to fill in indicating the student’s gender. Upon consideration, the school determined that the requested information was irrelevant to the field trip activities and deleted the line with the gender marker request.

In addition, transgender students who transition after having completed high school, may ask their previous schools to amend school records or a diploma or transcript that include the student’s birth name and gender. When requested, and when satisfied with the gender identity information provided, schools should amend the student’s record, including reissuing a high school diploma or transcript, to reflect the student’s current name and gender.

Restrooms, Locker Rooms, and Changing Facilities

All students are entitled to have access to restrooms, locker rooms and changing facilities that are sanitary, safe, and adequate, so they can comfortably and fully engage in their school program and activities. In meeting with the transgender student (and parent) to discuss the issues set forth in this section, it is essential that the principal and student address the student’s access to the restrooms, locker room and changing facility. Each situation needs to be reviewed and addressed based on the particular circumstances of the student and the school facilities. In all cases, the principal should be clear with the student (and parent) that the student may access the restroom, locker room, and changing facility that corresponds to the student’s gender identity. While some transgender students will want that arrangement, others will not be comfortable with it. Transgender students who are uncomfortable using a sex-segregated restroom should be provided with a safe and adequate alternative, such as a single “unisex” restroom or the nurse’s restroom. Similarly, some transgender students may not be comfortable undressing in the changing facilities that correspond to the student’s gender identity. The following are examples of ways in which school officials have responded to these situations:

¹⁰ As discussed in the section on Names and Pronouns, the Department’s publication Assigning State Assigned Student Identifiers (SASIDs) to Massachusetts’ Public-School Students guides District staff through the process of adding or revising SIMS data.

In one elementary school, a transgender second-grader socially transitioned from female to male. The principal informed the staff: For the remainder of this year, he will use Nurse Margaret’s restroom, and toward the end of the year we will make future determinations of restroom use in consultation with his family.

In one middle school, a male-to-female transgender sixth-grader socially transitioned after spring break. For the rest of the school year, she used the nurse’s restroom and the other unisex restrooms at the school. Beginning in seventh grade, she used the girls’ restroom.

In one high school, a transgender male-to-female student was given access to the female changing facility, but the student was uncomfortable using the female changing facility with other female students because there were no private changing areas within the facility. The principal examined the changing facility and determined that curtains could easily be put up along one side of a row of benches near the group lockers, providing private changing areas for any students who wished to use them. After the school put up the curtains, the student was comfortable using the changing facility.

Some students may feel uncomfortable with a transgender student using the same sex-segregated restroom, locker room or changing facility. This discomfort is not a reason to deny access to the transgender student. School administrators and counseling staff should work with students to address the discomfort and to foster understanding of gender identity, to create a school culture that respects and values all students.

School staff as well as students and their families may find the use of restrooms and changing facilities to be among the more challenging issues presented by the gender identity law, perhaps due to issues of personal privacy. As emphasized in other sections, these issues should be resolved on a case-by-case basis, through dialogue with students and parents, and through leadership in creating safe and supportive learning environments.

Physical Education Classes and Intramural and Interscholastic Athletic Activities

Physical education is a required course in all grades in Massachusetts’ public schools, and school-based athletics are an important part of many students’ lives. Most physical education classes in Massachusetts’ schools are coed, so the gender identity of students should not be an issue with respect to these classes. Where there are sex-segregated classes or athletic activities, including intramural and interscholastic athletics, all students must be allowed to participate in a manner consistent with their gender identity. With respect to interscholastic athletics, the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association will rely on the gender determination made by the student’s District; it will not make separate gender identity determinations.

At one school, a transgender girl joined the girls’ cheerleading squad. The school supported the student’s participation on the team. When the team was going to a regional competition, however, several of the team members raised a concern that the school would be made to compete in the coed cheerleading portion of the competition rather than in the all-girls portion for which they prepared. With the permission of the student, the principal wrote a letter that she gave to the coach to take to the competition in case officials at the competition questioned the team’s participation in the all-girls’ portion of the event. The letter explained: “Student, Jane Smith, is a transgender girl who has been a member of the girls’ team since (date). Jane has a sincerely held female gender identity and, therefore, according to state law must be permitted to participate as a girl on the girls’ cheerleading team.” The team participated in the regional competition without incident.

Other Gender-Based Activities, Rules, Policies, and Practices

As a general matter, schools should evaluate all gender-based policies, rules, and practices and maintain only those that have a clear and sound pedagogical purpose. Gender-based policies, rules, and practices can have the effect of marginalizing, stigmatizing, and excluding students, whether they are gender nonconforming or not. In some circumstances, these policies, rules, and practices may violate federal and state law. For these reasons, schools should consider alternatives to them.

Whenever students are separated by gender in school activities or are subject to an otherwise lawful gender-specific rule, policy, or practice, students must be permitted to participate in such activities or conform to such a rule, policy, or practice consistent with their gender identity.

The new law on gender identity provides a good opportunity for schools to review their gender-distinct policies. For example, some schools require students to wear gender-based garb for graduation or have gender-based dress codes for prom, special events, and daily attire. Schools should eliminate gendered policies and practices such as these. For example, one school that previously had blue graduation gowns for boys and white ones for girls switched to blue gowns for all graduates. The school also changed its gender-based dress code for the National Honor Society ceremony, which had required girls to wear dresses.

Similarly, some classroom teachers may routinely include gender-based practices in the classroom. For example, some teachers may have boys and girls line up separately to leave the classroom to go to lunch, the gymnasium, restrooms, or recess, and may never have considered the educational value of non-gendered alternatives, such as having students line up in the order of their birthdays, or alphabetically by name, or in the order in which they are sitting.¹¹

Conclusion

This section cannot anticipate every situation in which questions may come up in the implementation of this law, and the needs of each transgender or gender nonconforming student should be assessed and addressed on a case-by-case basis. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education will continue to provide assistance, support, and resources as we work together to create a safe and supportive school environment for all students.

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District will work directly with a student's family. Supporting a student who is exploring their gender identity and expressing a desire to change their pronouns is an important and sensitive matter that will involve the parents or guardians.

Every student and family experience is unique, and it is essential to approach this situation with sensitivity and respect. It will be crucial to create a safe environment for the student and their family. School based administration and student support personnel will work directly with the family and their child.

JOINT LABOR MANAGEMENT

Building based DCTA/DCPA/MNA meetings are intended to be at ground zero for labor-relations concerns or issues brought forward to immediate supervisors/administrators for clarification and/or resolution. A building based DCTA meeting has an established labor-relations agenda and subsequent outcomes that are to be shared with all employees via email within one week of the meeting.

A joint labor management group that will meet on at least a quarterly basis during the school year. The committee will be composed of the Superintendent and/or Assistant Superintendent, and/or the Director of Pupil Personnel Services, and/or the Director of Finance and Operations and other necessary administrative staff, and DCTA/DCPA/MNA leadership. The Committee will meet to discuss any major local, state, and/or federal initiatives and unresolved building-based labor-relations concerns or issues.

NURSE CONTACT

Dismissal for Illness

If a student indicates a desire to see the nurse, the classroom teacher should allow the student to go to the health clinic. If a student appears to be in immediate need of help, the teacher is to call and get assistance from the nurse.

Dismissal for illness by the school nurse from the health clinic will occur only after contact with a parent/guardian or caregiver is made.

Universal Precautions

Universal precautions refer to the usual and ordinary steps all school staff need to take in order to reduce their risk of infection with HIV, the virus that causes AIDS, as well as all other blood-borne organisms (such as the Hepatitis B virus).

These precautions are universal because they refer to steps that need to be taken in all cases, not only when a staff member or student is known to be HIV infected.

They are precautions because they require foresight and planning, and should be integrated into existing safety guidelines.

Appropriate equipment (mops, buckets, bleach, hot water, hand soap, disposable towels and latex gloves) are readily available to custodians who are responsible for the cleanup of body fluid spills.

1. Treat human blood spills with caution.
2. Clean up blood spills promptly.

3. Inspect the intactness of skin on all exposed body parts, especially the hands. Cover all open cuts or broken skin, or ask another staff member to do the cleanup. Latex gloves contribute an added measure of protection, but are not essential if skin is intact.
4. Clean up blood spills with a solution of one-part household bleach to ten parts water, pouring the solution around the periphery of the spill. Disinfect mops, buckets and other cleaning equipment with fresh bleach solution.
5. Always wash hands after any contact with body fluids. This should be done immediately in order to avoid contaminating other surfaces or parts of the body (be especially careful not to touch your eyes before washing up). Soap and water will kill HIV.
6. Clean up other body fluid spills (urine, vomit, feces) unless grossly blood contaminated, in the usual manner. They do not pose a significant risk of HIV infection.

Hand Hygiene

Proper hand hygiene is the single most effective way to prevent the spread of most infections. Several studies have indicated an association between handwashing or use of alcohol-based hand sanitizers and reduction in school absenteeism due to infectious illnesses.

People should practice hand hygiene:

- after toileting;
- before eating or handling food; and,
- after contact with blood or body fluids, non-intact skin, or nasal and respiratory secretions.

To properly wash and clean hands, the following procedures should be followed:

- Wash hands with soap and water when they are visibly soiled. Wet hands first with water, apply soap, and rub hands together vigorously for at least 20 seconds. Rinse hands with water and dry thoroughly. Use a towel to turn off the faucet.
- If hands are not visibly soiled, an alcohol-based hand rub or gel may be used in place of soap and water. Apply the product to the palm of one hand and rub the hands together, covering all surfaces of the hands and fingers, until hands are dry.

Sanitation Guidelines

- Place disposable items contaminated with blood or body fluids in plastic bags in covered containers.
- Store clothing or other washable items stained with blood and/or body fluids separately in a plastic bag, sealed, and labeled with the student's name and send home.
- Diapers, soiled tissues, bandages, paper towels, and other soiled items should be disposed of in plastic bags and placed in the trash.
- Sharp items such as needles and lancets should be placed in a puncture proof container and disposed of under the direction of the local department of public health.

Toileting/Changing Guidelines

Toileting/changing should be done on surfaces used especially for such purposes. The surface should be smooth, free of cracks, and non-porous. A disposable cover should cover this surface. After each use, throw away the cover, then wash any contamination that you can see with soap and water, and spray with a standard cleaning solution. The trash canister should be lined, covered and preferably have a foot pedal. A sink for hand washing should be directly next to the changing area. Changing and food areas should be distinctively separate areas. Wear gloves when toileting/changing and it is necessary to wash your hands after.

SC Policy: JLCEA-R

LIFE-THREATING FOOD ALLERGIES

Adopted: 04.10.2019

Background

Allergic reactions span a wide range in the severity of symptoms. The most severe and life-threatening reaction is anaphylaxis. Anaphylaxis is a potentially life-threatening medical condition occurring in allergic individuals after exposure to their specific allergens. Anaphylaxis refers to a collection of symptoms affecting multiple systems in the body, the most dangerous of which are breathing difficulties and a drop-in blood pressure or shock, both of which are potentially fatal. The most common causes of anaphylaxis in children include allergies to the following:

- Foods (most commonly peanuts, tree nuts, milk, dairy products, soy, wheat, fish and shellfish)
- Insect stings (yellow jackets, bees, wasps, hornets)
- Medications
- Latex

The Dudley-Charlton Regional School District guidelines developed within this document are applicable to students who are at risk for anaphylaxis and in circumstances where a previously undiagnosed life- threatening allergic response occurs. Anaphylaxis can occur immediately or up to two hours following allergen exposure. Therefore, it is important to identify students at risk, to implement appropriate preventative policies and to be prepared to handle these emergencies when they arise.

Goals

As part of its Life-Threatening Allergies policy, the Dudley Charlton Regional School District has developed the following four chief goals:

- Maintain a system-wide protocol for responding to students' needs
- Minimize the risk of exposure to allergens that pose a threat to students with life-threatening allergies
- Prepare for possible allergic reactions, and to respond appropriately to any allergy emergencies

The Dudley Charlton Regional School District cannot guarantee to provide an allergen-free environment for students with life threatening allergies. However, an overall purpose of the Life-Threatening Allergies policy is to develop a system-wide effort to educate all stakeholders - educators, parents, students and community about LTAs. To this end the sections below highlight the major responsibilities of those various stakeholders. However, the Individual Health Care Plan (IHCP) or Allergy Action Plan (AAP) developed for each child with an LTA will be individualized and not all responsibilities are or can be detailed in these guidelines.

Responsibilities of the Dudley Charlton Regional School District:

The Superintendent and staff are responsible for the following:

- Create a system-wide emergency plan for addressing life threatening allergic reactions
- Provide in-service training and education on reducing allergy risks, recognizing allergy symptoms, and emergency procedures for staff.

Training shall include, but not be limited to the following:

- A description/definition of severe allergies and a discussion of the most common allergens
- A description/discussion of the signs and symptoms of anaphylaxis
- Training to designated staff on the correct use of an EpiPen
- Discussion of specific steps to follow in the event of an emergency
- Encourage a "NO FOOD TRADING" and "NO UTENSIL SHARING" practice in all schools with particular focus at the elementary school level
- Provide for school nurses, in conjunction with the student's parent(s)/guardian(s), the primary care provider/allergist, and the school physician (if appropriate) to prepare an Individual Health Care Plan (IHCP)/Allergy Action Plan (AAP) for any student with a life- threatening allergy. The Plans will be reviewed by the school nurse and the student's parent(s)
- Ensure that LTA precautions are in place in school cafeteria as outlined by the Individual IHCP/AAP (i.e., Tables will be cleaned and sanitized and designated by a universal symbol.)
- Make the IHCP/AAP available in the nurse's office and a student's homeroom. Recommend that parent(s)/guardian(s) attach a photograph of their student with a Life-Threatening Allergy to their IHCP/AAP
- Submit to School Bus Company an LTA list of students who have life threatening allergies
- Require all food service employees to use latex free gloves

Parents' /Guardian Rights

Mahmoud v. Taylor U.S. Supreme Court case 2025

Consistent with Massachusetts regulations, 603 CMR 26.05(1), the Dudley-Charlton Regional Schools, through its curricula and materials, encourages respect for the human and civil rights of all individuals, regardless of race, color, sex, gender identity, religion, national origin or sexual orientation. Families may request information from the building principal on available accommodations related to curriculum content.

SECTION II

Learning Community Responsibilities

ADVERTISEMENTS/DISTRIBUTION

Teachers are expected to seek approval from the principal prior to the distribution of materials via teacher mailboxes or other media.

Teachers are expected to seek approval from a building-based administrator in order to utilize the Dudley-Charlton RSD distribution email list for communication purposes to all staff.

CAFETERIA

Students are able to socialize with peers during lunch. However, this should not interfere with the safety and enjoyment of others. Staff monitoring student lunches are expected to maintain a safe and pleasant atmosphere by providing a structure that inhibits roaming. Staff monitoring lunches are expected to maintain the established list of cafeteria norms of behavior.

CHANGE OF LOCATION

Teachers must notify personnel in the main office if a class is taken to another area or to the library/media center during a regularly scheduled period. A teacher should contact the office if he/she needs to remove their class to another location due to an emergency.

In the event that teachers want to take students outside for instructional purposes it is suggested that teachers give students 24-hour notice if proper clothing such as sneakers are required. Prior to relocating outside, teachers must inform the school's office personnel and review the section on nurse contact (page 63).

Teachers are expected to inform the school's office personnel when you leave and when you return. When outside, teachers are required to have either a working cell phone or a 2-way radio. Teachers are expected to provide the office with the cell phone number in order to facilitate communication.

CLASSROOM ATTENDANCE

Teachers must maintain classroom period attendance for each class for the purposes of grade reporting and attendance.

All teachers must complete/export morning and/or period attendance within the first 30 minutes of the school day and/or period. Staff is responsible for reviewing the daily absence report and reporting any and all discrepancies to the office. Staff must report to the office immediately any students missing from their class.

MULTI-TIERED SYSTEM OF SUPPORT (MTSS)

MTSS is a framework to ensure successful educational outcomes for all students by using a data-based problem-solving process to provide and evaluate the effectiveness of multiple tiers of integrated academic, behavior, and social-emotional instruction/intervention supports matched to student needs in alignment with educational standards. (Critical Components of MTSS). In order to implement positive behavior interventions and supports across the District, all members of the Dudley-Charlton RSD community adhere to our agreed upon the guiding principles for civility: treat others with civility and respect, help others when you know they need it, and seek help for yourself when you need it.

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

It is the philosophy of the administration that discipline is a learning process whereby the individual learns to develop habits of self-control and recognizes his/her own responsibilities to our community. Though prevention is the main criterion, corrective action may be employed as needed to prevent continued misbehavior.

Every staff member will establish classroom systems for appropriate behavior with her/his students, post classroom norms, and provide appropriate consequences for students that make poor choices by violating the norms or disrupting the learning environment. All will handle their own detentions for minor incidents occurring within the teacher's jurisdiction. Teacher detentions will be communicated home and will be assigned with a 24-hour notice or same day if communicated with parent/caregiver. If a student fails to report for a teacher detention, the teacher will confer with the student (parent/caregiver) and determine whether the student's explanation is acceptable. The student will be re-assigned a teacher detention if the explanation is acceptable or if the explanation is unacceptable, a written discipline referral will be made to administration indicating that the student failed to show to a teacher assigned detention and parent/caregiver communication of such has been completed.

Office referrals will result when teachers have exhausted classroom consequences and/or a behavior is extreme enough to warrant removal from class. Students removed from class should be sent to the designated area to meet with an administrator unless otherwise notified.

Secondary Staff Classroom Management Register: All teachers must maintain a register that includes the following information; Date, Behavior, Consequences, Date Consequence was Served, and if Parent Contacted (Y/N), Notes.

Teachers should not leave a class or directed study room unsupervised.

NOTE: Discretion is necessary if a teacher suspects a student is under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Notify administration immediately about the suspicion.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Chapter 71, Section 37G of the Massachusetts General Laws strictly prohibits any kind of corporal punishment. Corporal punishment of students is prohibited. The power of the school committee or of any teacher or other employee or agent of the school committee to maintain discipline upon school property shall not include the right to inflict corporal punishment upon any pupil.

All teachers should familiarize themselves with the Code of Conduct for students, which are outlined in the Student Handbook.

CORRIDORS/LAVATORIES

Maintaining order in the corridors and lavatories leads to a safe and optimal environment for learning. These areas should be viewed as an extension of one's classroom. Staff members are expected to greet all students and be aware of students who may not be in their assigned classrooms. All staff members are responsible for the conduct of all students throughout all school grounds and activities.

All teachers are required to maintain documentation for all students leaving the classroom. Documentation should include the student's name and destination. At the high school and middle school level the documentation should also include the time left the classroom, and the time returned to the classroom.

EMAILS, MAILBOXES, AND PRINT CENTERS

Because of the amount of written and electronic communication that often occurs during any given day, it is highly recommended and important that teachers check their email and mailboxes before school each day and before leaving in the afternoon. Students are not permitted to pick up mail from your mailbox or use copy machines. A copy machine exception is in the SHRHS Library Media Center.

CELLULAR TELEPHONES/ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Staff members should model expectations for students with regards to the use of their personal communication devices. Staff members want to demonstrate discretion with the use of personal communication devices for personal use. It is expected that these devices will not be used in the presence of students for personal use.

MARKING/GRADING BELIEF STATEMENT & PROCEDURES

It is the District's belief that grades reflect and communicate the acquisition of content and skills. Refusal to complete work is a behavior that should have a minimal impact on the student's overall grade and should be addressed through appropriate interventions. Teachers have the autonomy in affording opportunities to demonstrate learning through re-takes and/or make-ups. Teachers also have the autonomy to exempt or adjust student workload based upon individual student needs and extenuating circumstances.

Teachers are required to update their electronic grade book within 5 school days after an assignment's due date.

Traditional Grading Expectations (Secondary)

A syllabus/course description will be provided at the start of the school year that includes the following grading expectations;

- Categories are defined and all categories are used to ensure the accuracy of the grading formula.
- Weights within categories for different types of assignments are defined (i.e., tests, quizzes, projects, labs, midterms etc.)

Standards Based Grading Expectations (PreK- Grade 4)

To determine a trimester grade, teachers collect evidence of student learning through daily work, observation, formative and summative assessment. This evidence is used to determine whether the student has fully mastered the skill. Final reporting grades should be determined by considering multiple pieces of recent evidence per standard. Students should be able to consistently show proficiency. If three pieces of evidence do not show consistency, more evidence is needed.

All report cards will be accessible to parents through the District’s Student Information System (SIS), SchoolBrains. Parents K-12+ will be provided user access to a parent (community) portal to view final report cards.

PROVIDING STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS

When a teacher’s assigned students are placed in a temporary setting (e.g., out-of-school suspension, in- school suspension, main office), it is the responsibility of the classroom teachers to provide and assess required and/or alternative assignments, as requested.

CLASSROOM PROJECTS

Classroom projects are a function of the schools; therefore, teachers must plan for ample time in school for implementation and completion.

CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES IN SCHOOL

Controversial issues are topics that may be publicly sensitive and about which there are varied levels of opposing views, biases, emotions and/or conflict. American academic tradition stresses the free exchange of ideas as a basic element of curriculum development, instruction, and discussion. Studying controversial issues in school is important in preparing students to participate intelligently and responsibly in a democratic and pluralistic society.

An important goal of public education is to help students develop the capacity to participate respectfully, critically and positively in the discussion and analysis of controversial issues. Studying controversial issues provides opportunities to develop a student’s ability to think clearly and critically, to reason logically, to differentiate between opinion and intelligent analysis, and to respectfully examine different points of view with an open mind. All students have a right to express their opinions and a right to a respectful hearing. While teachers and other staff may have personal views on controversial issues, they do not have a right to use the school setting as a forum to promote their personal views. Teachers and other staff need to be constantly mindful that their views may influence students and that they have an obligation to model objectivity and to encourage their students to think for themselves.

The approach to writing about controversial issues and to discussion of controversial issues in the classroom will be objective and scholarly and will be done in a spirit of critical inquiry rather than advocacy. Teachers will ensure that reasoned arguments on an issue are presented in classroom discussions. Teachers will strive to balance major views and to assure that as many sides of the issues as possible are presented in a fair and impartial manner, with no position presented as the only one acceptable. Political issues will be presented in a non-partisan manner. Controversial issues that arise incidentally during instruction should be used by the teacher to promote critical inquiry and to teach thinking skills. In all instances, teachers will encourage students to develop an ability to meet issues without prejudice and to withhold judgments while facts are collected and evaluated.

Teachers must obtain permission from the Principal to invite visitors for classroom and/or school-wide presentations. Whenever outside persons are invited to speak on controversial issues, care will be taken to assure that a reasonable range of opinions on the issue are presented in an equitable manner and that they are consistent with the academic standards of the school.

Teachers will offer students and parents who might be offended by a presentation because of their religious or personal beliefs the opportunity not to participate in a presentation. Student-initiated forums are subject to the same standards for approach to discussion, consistency with the academic standards of the school, and use of visitors for presentations.

VIDEO/DIGITAL VIEWING

The viewing of movies and/or television shows as an instructional practice is strongly discouraged. Administrative approval is required for any video clip that is fifteen minutes or more in length and parents/caregivers must be notified one-week prior to the activity if the video clip has an age specific rating e.g., PG-13. Teachers are expected to preview all videos and identify all controversial segments as part of the approval process.

To conclude this process: If parents/caregivers choose to exclude their student from the viewing, they have that right and it is necessary for you to have an alternative assignment that addresses the presented concepts.

HOUSEKEEPING

Teachers are required to inspect their rooms regularly to maintain a clean, orderly learning environment. Any graffiti, vandalism, or other damage in the room and on desks must be reported immediately to administration. Any student who is caught intentionally vandalizing property must be referred to the office. Students should pick up large pieces of paper on the floor and, starting in grade 1, place chairs on desks prior to exiting their last class of the school day. Desks should be kept clean. Whiteboards should be reasonably clean. Bulletin boards should be utilized effectively to enhance the curriculum and classroom environment.

Please close all windows and lock doors and turn off lights before exiting your classroom or office for the day.

MOVEMENT OF LARGE PIECES OF FURNITURE

Please ask for assistance from our custodians when moving large cabinets, student desks, tables, and the teacher desks. They are more than willing to assist you.

FOOD

All staff must refrain from serving students food in the classrooms. Staff will not permit the serving/distribution of food by students without principal approval. Staff will be responsible for following the below procedure.

1. Food should be served or distributed through our cafeteria
2. Meet with a school nurse to review food allergy procedures, food items to be served and class lists, and
3. Administrative approval

At all levels, classroom or team parties or celebrations including those prior to holidays, long weekends, weekends or school vacations are not permitted.

TEACHER PLANNING

It is expected that teachers will maintain a planning document that typically represents 3 days of advanced planning. While there is no District standard for administrative review of planning documents, they will be made available upon request.

PETS/ANIMALS

All staff members and students must receive approval from administration to bring an animal, (i.e., dogs, cats, birds, lizards, fish, geckos, etc.) to school at any time.

TEXTS AND TRADE BOOKS

Teachers must keep a record of books issued to students and report any and all missing items and the replacement cost (if applicable) to the office or department coordinator.

This is rare, infrequent and School Committee must be informed upon granting such exceptions.

If possible, before submitting, check with your building principal to determine if District transportation vehicles are available.

Field trips and events must be "directly related to the total school program and curriculum" (School Committee Policy IJOA). Approval for all events is a multi-step process to include a review of District transportation availability, a review of student attendees by your school nurse, a review of needed accommodations for student with disabilities and then approval by your building principal and then the Assistant Superintendent will provide a final approval.

Staff members should reference their Collective Bargaining Agreement for information on staff meetings.

TEACHER LICENSURE-FINGERPRINTING

In order to teach in the Dudley-Charlton RSD you must hold an active and valid Massachusetts teaching license.

The Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education is responsible for licensing all professional educators including teachers, psychologists, guidance counselors, nurses, speech language pathologists and many other professional positions in the Dudley-Charlton Regional Schools. You can apply for your license and maintain your license through your ELAR account at DESE. It is very important for you to be familiar with your ELAR account which houses your demographic data, schools attended, license information and status, as well as other important documents that have been scanned into your file such as correspondence from DESE, MTEL test scores and other important documents. At the bottom of your profile, you will find all of this information.

Whether you are applying for a new license or renewing an existing license, it may take many months for DESE to process your request. Please plan accordingly.

Your license allows you to teach in Massachusetts, and every public-school system is required by law to employ only teachers with an appropriate, valid license. Please be sure your license is always up to date and in good standing. The Superintendent will assist you, at any time, if you need help in understanding the process.
