PASS

A COMMUNITY BASED TRANSITION DEFERMENT PROGRAM

Post-Graduate Alternatives for Secondary Students (PASS) is a community-based transition model located at most high schools throughout the district. Students participate in curriculum that emphasizes functional academics, social skills, life skills, community-based instruction, and work experience. Please contact the ESE specialist at the student's home high school or District Transition Specialist assigned to the student's high school.

Course Content

PASS utilization of on and off campus Community-based instruction (CBI) model that promotes the teaching and use of functional academic skills, social communication skills, community and independent adult living skills in the student's natural environment. This program provides students with a variety of training opportunities that will allow them to determine their strengths, interests, and access to their environment. Using self-determination skills and in collaboration with staff, families, agencies, and employers, students create a LIFE plan that will assist them in reaching their greater independence within the adult world.

Additional Skills Covered

- Connections with Adult Agencies
- Access through assistive technology
- Household Management
- Transportation Training
- Microenterprises
- Money Skills

(Including banking & budgeting)
