Monona Grove Pool Policies

1. The primary responsibility of supervising children rests with the parent or guardian, while the lifeguard's primary duty is emergency response.
2. The pool reserves the right to adjust schedules, combine classes, or close programs as needed.
3. Only Coast Guard-approved life jackets are allowed, and they must be worn with in-water supervision.
4. All swim lessons at MGHS must be conducted by a Monona Grove Pool staff member or approved instructor. Approved instructors must conduct swim lessons during the designated times and with an approved rental agreement and proof of insurance.
5. Locker rooms close 15 minutes after the last scheduled activity.
6. The Monona Grove Pool has a No-Refund policy, except when the Pool cancels a class. A prorated refund may be given in case of severe illness or injury, applied as a Monona Grove Pool credit. Refunds are not provided if a class is incorrectly chosen or if a participant chooses to cancel or withdraw.

Lap Swim

Is for swimming back and forth. Children under 18 must pass deep water test to use lap lanes.
2 swimmers-swim side by side
3 swimmers- circle swimming.

Open Swim
