- Now it's time for our Daily Shout Outs. Mrs. Fine-Garrett would like to shout out Period 1 Tutor Crew: Junior Hernandez and Fernando Rocha, Period 2 Tutor Crew: Athena Craig, Etyhan Craig, Avery Ragle, and Period 3 Peer Tutor Crew: Arthur Avila, Kylee Eubanks, Peyton Gallego, Nate Buckner and Jayden Carvahlo because these students are serving as Peer Tutors for their classmates. This was their first time having to work in this role and these students did an excellent job stepping into this leadership role. They took initiative and worked individually with students to ensure their work met the requirement, guiding them on what to improve. In addition, they showed strong communication and collaboration skills as they all had to work from the same doc to call up students and track their grades. The amount of professionalism, diligence, resourcefulness and reliability it took to do this job at the level they did, was immense. I was blown away at how they rose to the occasion in this role. Way to go Condors! Thank you, Condors!
- And today's lunch special is cheese or pepperoni pizza. Yummy!
- Have a great day Condors!!
