BROWARD County Public Schools

Redefining Our Schools

2025-26

Broward County Public Schools invites the community to participate in the next step of the Redefining Our Schools initiative. Eight Community Town Halls are taking place throughout the District to share options and obtain community feedback. Strategies under consideration include new educational programs, combining schools, changing school boundaries, selling or leasing properties, or repurposing schools to better serve the community. Schools being discussed at each meeting are listed below.

YOU ARE INVITED!
