

Jennifer Bashant

Jennifer L. Bashant, Ph.D., LMSW, MA, founder of Building Better Futures, LLC, is an educational consultant, motivational speaker and author with the mission to provide educators with evidence-based strategies to reduce challenging behavior in the classroom and create a positive impact on learning. Jennifer also works for SUNY System Administration and serves as University Director of ASAP|ACE, a student success program currently being implemented on 34 SUNY campuses.

Jennifer is passionate about her work, which is evident in her engaging, high-energy trainings and in her ability to connect with educators in a compassionate and authentic way. Her approach is trauma-sensitive and strengths-based, and she seeks to foster collaborative relationships between educators and students as they work together as partners in learning. Jennifer incorporates collaborative problem solving, restorative practices, and mindfulness to engage educators and students in social and emotional learning and developing cognitive skills.

Jennifer is a certified trainer in DiSC Work and Communication Styles, EQ-I 2.0 Emotional Intelligence, the Mindful Schools curriculum and Restorative Practices. As a doctorate-level licensed social worker with 25 years of experience, she shares her knowledge and expertise in a way that is heart-centered, practical, and relevant. Jennifer is the author of "Building a Trauma-Informed Compassionate Classroom," published by PESI, and "A Positive Mindset Journal" which is self-published.
