

MEET YOUR SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST INTERN

ANDREA WALDROP

About Me

Hello! My name is Andrea, and I'm so excited to be your school psychologist Intern this year. I am passionate about supporting learning, friendships, and emotional well-being. My goal is to partner with teachers and families to help children grow in confidence, discover their strengths, and thrive in and out of the classroom.

How I Can Help

- I support students by providing assessments, counseling, and consultation with teachers and families. I also help with interventions and support for IEPs, 504s, and MTSS to ensure students have what they need to thrive.

Fun Facts

- I am passionate about learning and teaching.
- I enjoy storytelling and antiques
- I enjoy exploring and learning about different cultures and traditions.
