Montgomery County Board of Education Hires New Superintendent

The Montgomery County Board of Education is thrilled to announce the selection and election of Dr. Karen Roseboro as the next superintendent of Montgomery County Schools (MCS). Dr. Roseboro's tenure will officially commence on July 1st, 2025.

After a meticulous review process that included applications from a diverse pool of thirty-one highly qualified candidates from ten states, the board enthusiastically chose Dr. Roseboro based on her extensive experience, exemplary leadership, and unwavering dedication to students and staff. The board is confident that Dr. Roseboro's vision and expertise will propel MCS to new heights of achievement.

Dr. Roseboro has enjoyed a long and distinguished career in public education, spanning more than 25 years in North Carolina. Most recently, she served as the Executive Director of Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment for Anson County Schools. Prior to that, she was the Superintendent of Tyrrell County Schools. Her earlier roles in Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools included Chief of Choice and Magnet Schools, Area Superintendent for School Turnaround, Priority Schools Coordinator, and principal. She also served as a principal in the Iredell-Statesville Schools district. Dr. Roseboro began her career as a middle school special education teacher in Davidson County Schools and a high school history teacher in Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools.

In addition to her extensive professional experience, Dr. Roseboro holds a strong academic background. She earned a bachelor's degree in history from East Carolina University, a master's degree in education administration from Gardner-Webb University, and a doctorate in educational leadership from Wingate University.

Dr. Roseboro is eager to assume leadership of Montgomery County Schools and looks forward to actively engaging with the community. Reflecting her enthusiasm and vision for the district, she shared, "My family and I are thrilled to join the Montgomery County community and build strong relationships here. I am deeply honored by the Board of Education's appointment to serve as the next Superintendent. I am eager to bring my experience in school turnaround, curriculum and instruction to this role. I look forward to collaborating with school and district leaders, our dedicated educators, support staff, and families to elevate student outcomes. My commitment is to cultivate positive learning environments where every student has access to a high-quality education that prepares them not only for college and careers, but for life! By partnering with all stakeholders, we will ensure Montgomery County Schools provides golden opportunities for all!"
