STUDENTS SERVED IN 2023-2024

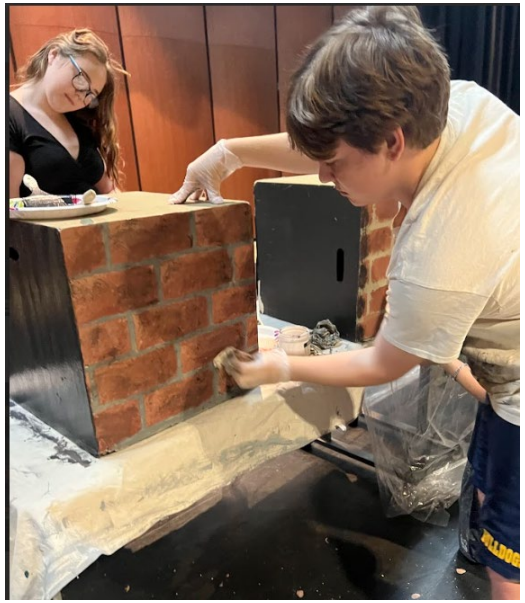

- Pitman High School and Turlock High School expanded opportunities for students participating in music programs to gain additional instruction through the addition of classified staff. Between the two schools, 8 part-time music assistants were hired to support students in Band, Color Guard, Drumline, and related competitions/activities. Input was sought from the schools' music community, particularly in collaboration with parents, booster clubs, music teachers, and administrators. Supports were provided during the regular instructional day, after school, and on weekends. We served approximately 215 students during the 2023-2024 school year.

2024-2025 SCHOOL YEAR

At Pitman and Turlock High Schools, we have expanded offerings in advanced photojournalism, choreography, theatre technology, vocal coaching, media arts, visual arts, and the continuance of mariachi courses. Across both comprehensive high schools, a total of 16 part-time music assistants, choreographers, and/or theatre technicians have been employed to support various programs, including the Marching Band, Symphonic Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band, Color Guard, Drumline, technical theatre, vocal coaching, and related competitions and activities. As we expanded opportunities for students, we adjusted the schedules of six teachers to provide additional courses.

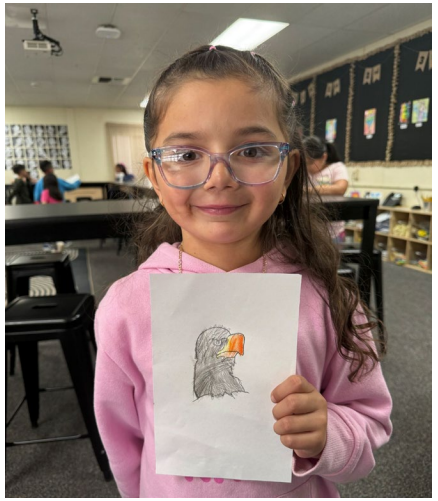

Brown, Cunningham, Earl, Julien, Medeiros, Osborn, Walnut, and Wakefield Elementary Schools have engaged part-time art teachers to deliver instruction to students in grades TK-6. Crowell hired a dance instructor to provide dance lessons to all students.

- Roselawn High School added a computer science/coding class to expand learning opportunities for students enrolled at Roselawn.

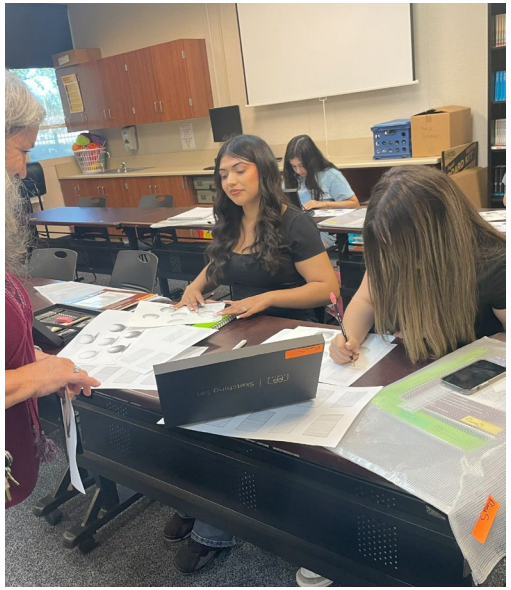

- Turlock Junior High School employed a guitar teacher and video production teacher.

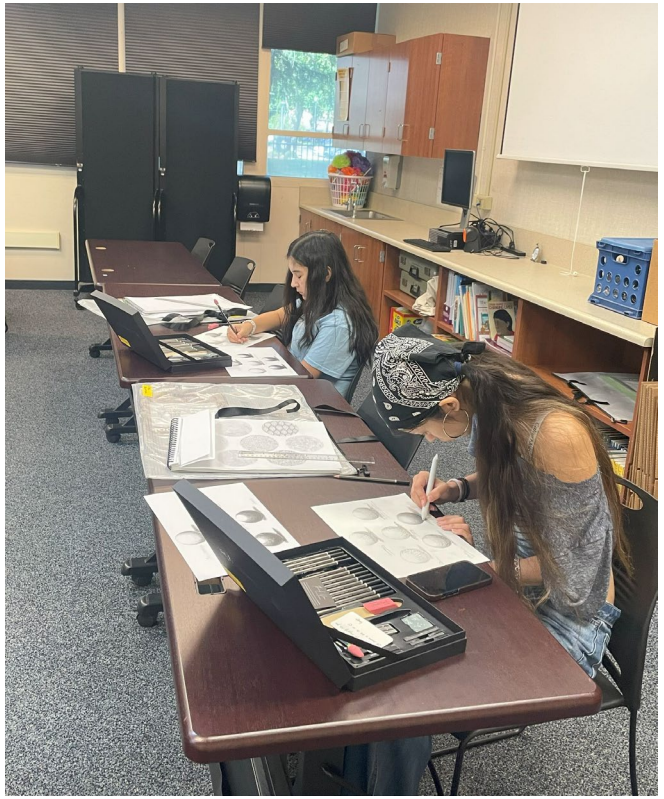

- Dutcher Middle School hired a part-time art instructor and created a Mariachi Band.

- eCademy hired a qualified art instructor to facilitate access to visual arts education. eCademy Charter at Crane has established an elective in-person art class for students in grades 7 through 12. This course is on Tuesdays and Thursdays for two hours in the afternoon.
