

WEST CHESTER
COMMUNITIES THAT CARE
wcctc.org

✓ Insightful ✓ Practical
✓ Science-based

Monday
Sept. 29, 2025
6:30 - 8 pm

Register at wcctc.org/events

Spanish interpretation available.

KIDS' CHARACTER COUNTS ONLINE and OFF

Join us to learn key points for how to develop our online and "in real life" character, PLUS learn skills for helping youth be safe online. This essential material for growing up in an increasingly digital world will also be shared at 8th grade assemblies across the District this fall. Come hear what the kids are learning, so you can reinforce the messages at home.

This presentation will cover:

- online safety
- social media addiction
- cyberbullying.

Register today for this engaging webinar.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Since 2012, Tom Thelen has spoken at over 900 schools and conferences and has been interviewed on NBC, CBS, FOX, and PBS. His book, Mental Health 101 For Teens, is an Amazon #1 New Release. Tom is a former Certified Instructor in Youth Mental Health First Aid, a training program by the National Council for Mental Wellbeing. Tom and his wife Casie live in Cocoa, FL with their 4 kids, ages 14-18.

Contact: mobilizer@wcctc.org or 484-401-9226 for details.