

Good morning, Condors! Here are your Daily Announcements with Melanie and Adriana.

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands: one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Please be seated .

- Today is World Suicide Prevention Day. The color yellow is a symbol representing hope, light and a reminder that help is available. We thank those that wore yellow today to honor this day.
- Seniors, if you have not yet taken a photo with Cook's photography for the yearbook, they are here today from 9 AM to 12 noon to take photos for the yearbook. You will be called out of class over the intercom by alphabetical order. Please make sure to take a photo if you haven't already so that you will be in the yearbook. Teachers, the list of students that have not yet taken a photo was emailed to you last week and again this morning.

- This Friday is our Fall Rally. Make sure to wear your class colors and be ready for some fun games, great performances and to honor our fall sport athletes.
- Our College & Career Fair is coming up on September 17th from 5pm - 8pm, and we need student volunteers! Volunteers will earn community service hours and a gift card as a thank you! Interested? Come by the Coordinator's office and sign up. Spaces are limited! Also, to celebrate our College and Career Fair we will have a College and Career Dress Up day next Wednesday, September 17 so find your college gear or any clothing items that show the career path you have chosen to pursue and gain 5 Star Student points for participating. That is next Wednesday, September 17.
- Now it's time for our Daily Shout Outs. Ms. Jordan and Dr. Oz would like to shout out all of the AP World History students because they are doing a GREAT job learning the reading & note taking system for their AP textbook.
- And today's lunch special is orange chicken with steamed rice. Yummy!
- Have a great day Condors!!
