Ms. Peterson conducted a review of the handbook and the recent last-minute revisions.

Superintendent Pierangeli explained that the district's policies have been placed at the end of each handbook. The Superintendent noted that while this may have resulted in some redundancy, she would prefer key information to be stated twice rather than omitted entirely. The Superintendent also shared that in the coming year, the team will take time to review the handbooks, refine the content, and incorporate any additional advice that has been provided.

Chair Seddiki acknowledged the significant effort that has gone into updating the handbooks and expressed appreciation for the team's hard work. Chair Seddiki added that placing all policies in one location makes them easier to find and reference as needed. Chair Seddiki thanked everyone for their contributions in completing the handbooks.
