

4-H Curriculum Self Directed Programs

Listed below are the main subjects for our 4-H student lead projects.
There are many curricula under these main tabs.

Please contact Brandi Boaz, Caswell County 4-H Agent, blwagne2@ncsu.edu or 336-694-4158 ext. 3 for more information.

4-H Basics	Introduction to 4-H Mentoring
Animal Science	Horse Livestock Poultry & Embryology Small Animals and Pets Veterinary Science
Citizenship & Civic Engagement	Citizenship & Civic Engagement Diversity & Cultural Education Leadership
Communications & Expressive Arts	Communication & Public Speaking Hobbies Quilting & Sewing Visual & Creative Arts
Foods, Nutrition & Healthy Lifestyles	Cooking & Baking Food Preservation Techniques Food Science & Safety Healthy Living & Fitness Mental Health & Emotional Wellbeing Nutrition
Natural Resources & Environmental Education	Entomology (insects) & Beekeeping Environmental Education Fishing Outdoor Exploration Weather & Climate Science

Personal Growth & Career Development	Career Development & Exploration Child Development Consumer Education Entrepreneurship Financial Management Leadership Mental Health & Emotional Wellbeing Personal Growth
Plants, Gardening & Agriculture	Crops & Agriculture Gardening Soil Science
STEM	Animal Science Aviation & Space Exploration Electronics Engines, Motors and Machines Entomology & Beekeeping Environmental Education Food Science & Safety General STEM Plants, Gardening, & Agriculture Programming & Computer Science Renewable Energy Robotics STEM Challenge Weather & Climate

