Pleasant Valley Intermediate School District TITLE I: School-Parent-Student Compact: 9/2025

The School-Parent-Student Compact will be jointly developed with parents and family members. The compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and the parents will build and develop partnerships to help children achieve the State's high standards (ESSA, Section 1116(d)).

School

Pleasant Valley Intermediate School understands the importance of the school experience to every student and their role as educators and models. Therefore, the school agrees to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of their ability:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the children served under this part to meet the challenging State academic standards
- Address the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis, through, at a minimum—
    - parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually or as requested by the parent or guardian, during which the compact shall be discussed as the compact relates to the individual child's achievement
    - frequent reports to parents on their children's progress;
    - Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's school and to observe school day activities. Parents who are interested in volunteering should contact the school office to obtain the necessary clearances.
    - Ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand. (required) (ESSA, Section 1116(d)(1-2))
- Treat each child with dignity and respect
- Strive to address the individual needs of the student
- Acknowledge that parents are vital to the success of the child and the school
- Provide a safe, positive, and healthy learning environment
- Assure every student access to quality learning experiences, and that the school staff communicates clear expectations for performance to both students and parents

Parent

The parent understands that participation in his/her student's education will help his/her achievement and attitude. Therefore, the parent will continue to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of his/her ability:

- Volunteering in their child's classroom
- Supporting their child's learning
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their child and the positive use of extracurricular time
- Create a home atmosphere that supports learning
- Send the student to school on time and well-rested on a regular basis
- Attend school functions and parent/teacher conferences
- Encourage their child to show respect for all members of the school community and school property
- Review all school communications and respond promptly

Student

The student realizes education is important. He/she is the one responsible for his/her own success. Therefore, he/she agrees to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of his/her ability:

- Get to class on time every day and develop a positive attitude toward school
- Be responsible for completing homework on time and be cooperative by carrying out the teacher's instructions and ask for help when needed.
- Do daily work that is neat and reflects the student's best effort, and be respectful to all school members and to school property
