Guided Questions
March 2026 Family Devotion

Monday- 3/9- Colossians 1: 1-23
How is Christ described in verses 15-20? What stands out to you about who Jesus is?

Tuesday- 3/10- Colossians 1:24-2:5
Paul says he has become a servant of the gospel. He gets to preach "the mystery that has been hidden for ages." This mystery is this: all people can be saved through what Jesus did on the cross and in His resurrection. Paul's ministry is to not only preach the gospel but to help believers grow in their faith and their personal holiness. Who is someone who has preached the gospel to you and helped you grow in your faith? Who is someone you can share the gospel with? Who is someone you can help grow in their faith?

Wednesday- 3/11- Colossians 2:6-15
Christ has brought us from spiritual death to spiritual life. We were dead in our sins, but now, we are forgiven from all our sins and alive with Christ. Spend time as a family thanking God for the ways He has freed you from sin and given you new life. Ask for forgiveness for the ways you continue to live in sin.

Thursday- 3/12- Colossians 2: 16-23
Are there things in your life that make it seem as though you still "belong to the world"? What are ways your life looks like the fallen world around us?

Friday- 3/13- Colossians 3: 1-17
If you have believed in Christ for salvation, you are now have a new life. The Bible tells us that we have be brought from spiritual death into spiritual life. In these verse, Paul explains what our old, dead life looked like (verses 5-9), and he contrasts that with what our new spiritual life looks like (verses 12-17). What parts of your old sinful life do you still struggle with? What characteristics of new spiritual life do you want to grow in?

Monday- 3/16- Colossians 3: 18-25
God calls us to do all of our work as if we are doing it for the Lord. As a parent, child, student, teacher, etc, how can you work at all things knowing that ultimately, we do all things for the Lord?

Tuesday- 3/17- Colossians 4:1-18
How many different names are listed in these verses? Why do you think these people are mentioned? What does this teach us about the family of God?

Wednesday- 3/18- Luke 22:1-38
Jesus and His disciples are celebrating a special meal together- the Passover. This is the last meal Jesus will share with His disciples before going to the cross. What argument starts between the disciples? How is Jesus the ultimate example of the greatest becoming the least?

Thursday- 3/19- Luke 22: 39-53
The next few weeks, we are reading chapters in Luke and John that show us the moments leading up to the death of Christ. What does this Jesus' prayer to the Father in the garden teach you about Jesus?

Friday- 3/20- John 18:1-18
This passage describes the night before Jesus's death. He is betrayed by His disciple Judas, He is questioned by the high priest Annas, and He is deserted by Peter. Hebrews 4:15 tells us that Jesus can sympathize with us. He was mistreated, yet He still did not sin. What mistreatment are you facing right now? How does the mistreatment Jesus experienced bring you comfort?

Monday- 3/23- Luke 22:54-71
Why do you think that was Peter so brave in the garden, and yet so cowardly in the courtyard? How can we account for such a dramatic turn?

Tuesday- 3/24- John 18: 19-27
Peter's fall into sin starts small, but eventually culminates with him denying that he even knows Jesus multiple times. Have you seen sin patterns take a similar trajectory in your own life (starting small, and then subtly growing into more serious)?

Wednesday- 3/25- John 18:28-40
Why did Jesus come to the world? What is the truth He came to show?

Thursday- 3/26- Luke 23:1-25
After Jesus was arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane, he was tried six different times in the early hours and morning before he was crucified. How does Jesus respond to his accusers? What lesson does this teach you?

Friday- 3/27- John 19:1-16
Read Isaiah 53. What similarities do you see between this Old Testament prophecy and the account of Jesus in John 19:1-16?

Monday- 3/30- John 19: 17-37
Today, we read about the death of Jesus. As John describes what happened, he repeats this phrase "this happened that scripture might be fulfilled." Why is this phrase important? What does this teach us about Jesus?

Tuesday- 3/31- Luke 23: 26-43
Our Savior died a lonely, criminal's death. He was beaten, mocked, and tortured. Why did he do all of this?
