

To sign-up early, scan the QR code here or visit events.hackensackmeridianhealth.org/devped

KEEP GETTING BETTER

Understanding Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) for a New Autism Diagnosis

To provide parents/caregivers with a virtual presentation of information, resources, and guidance on applied behavior analysis as a therapeutic intervention for children with autism spectrum disorder. Research-based strategies for building skills and decreasing challenging behaviors will be discussed and what to look for when beginning ABA therapy for your child.

Key Takeaways

- Obtain a better understanding of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA)
- Learn how ABA can help improve quality of life
- Gain a better understanding of ASD-related behaviors and why they occur
- Learn strategies to build skills and decrease challenging behavior
- Prepare for the process of obtaining and working with private ABA providers

WHEN

For the year-round class schedule, scan the QR code
12 P.M. - 1 P.M.

WHERE

This is a virtual presentation.

Hackensack Meridian
Children's Health