OHS TIGERS

Daily Bulletin Thursday 9/11/25 Wk- Purple

September is Attendance Awareness Month, and we are excited to launch a 5th-period class competition starting Monday, September 15th, and going through Friday, September 26th. Classes will compete for either the highest attendance or the most improved attendance. The winning classes will be awarded and celebrated at the end of the competition.

Students, Homecoming Dance tickets go on sale Monday, September 15th. There are academic, behavioral, and attendance requirements for Homecoming. Academic: to buy a ticket you must have a 2.0 GPA at quarter, or demonstrate no F's by September 26th. Behavioral: starting Monday, you can not be suspended, have 2 or more Structured Days, or have any unserved lunch interventions from Monday, Sept. 15 to Homecoming October 4th. Attendance: you must attend school Friday, October 3rd.

Have you purchased your yearbook yet? The price will increase to $75 on September 15th, so buy your yearbook this week to take advantage of the lowest price possible. We can set up payment plans if needed!

Students, if you are assigned a lunch intervention for excessive tardies, report directly to room L-3 in the library. Do not get lunch first. You will be released at 1:15 and can get lunch after. Remember you must serve your lunch interventions to be able to attend home football games or buy Homecoming tickets.
