September 15, 2025

Vol.7

Good evening Families,
Mountain Biking had a beautiful day yesterday to host their first event of the season on Albemarle's home trails, riding against other area public high schools. Thanks to all the riders who helped prepare these trails to become a technical course. We had many top finishers: All girls: 4th Anna Brodhead , T5th Addison Huffman
F/S Boys: 1st Nathan Brannock, 3rd Liam Dees-Kuttner
JV/V Boys: 1st Conner Masters, 2nd Nolan Rusher

Reminders from Athletics for events:

- FTBL: K-8 students attending a game MUST have a parent/guardian (21+) in attendance with them at all times. All spectators must have a ticket, and we will have exit only traffic beginning 3rd quarter.
- AHS does not charge students to attend Field Hockey or VB games. Come support the team!
- Clear bag policy for events
- No outside food/drink permitted at events.
- Please put trash in the receptacles and do not leave it in the bleachers/stands.
- Albemarle County employees must show their ID badges when requesting free entrance to an event (reg. season).

COACHES CATCH-UP

This week we highlight Coach Taiyaunna Bolling, who joined the staff this year. During the day Ms. Bolling works at AHS as a building sub, and then after school she trades that role to coach for the JV cheer team.

In her spare time, she enjoys listening to music and making her favorite meal Mac & Cheese. Taiyaunna chose to coach because she feels she can make a difference, and with her openness, she has become a mentor to many of the girls on the team.
