However, students that are considered economically disadvantaged CANNOT be asked to reimburse CCP costs.

Appeal Options when missing the April 1 deadline:

Any student who fails to provide the notification by the required date may not participate in the program during the following school year without the written consent of the principal, or equivalent administrator. If the principal does not provide written consent, the student may appeal the principal's decision to the district superintendent. Not later than 30 days after the notification of the appeal, the district superintendent or governing entity shall hear the appeal and shall either grant or deny that student's participation in the program. The decision of the district superintendent or governing entity shall be final.² There is no appeal for missing the April 1 deadline for students attending nonpublic/private secondary schools or homeschooled students.
